Sylvia,

I've really enjoyed our long friendship. Today being the first of our graduating exercises it makes me feel awfully glad to be getting out of school. I hope you don't forget me because I'll never forget you. Anyway I'll see

My Dearest Sylvia,
May I wish you all
the best in this world.
I hope we may always
be good friends.
Good luck at school next year.

Deryl

IT'S SO NICE TO LOOK AT YESTERDAY:
TO SEE THE FRIENDS YOU KNEW,
AND RECALL EACH PRECIOUS MOMENT—
SO I WON'T KEEP THIS BOOK FROM YOU!

ALTHOUGH OUR FRIENDSHIP WAS SO BRIEF,
THESE FEW WORDS I WOULD LIKE TO SAY;

MAY YOUR FONDEST DREAMS COME TO LIFE,
WITH EACH TOMORROW HAPPIER THAN YESTERDAY.
IF OUR PATHS SHOULD EVER CHANCE TO MEET,
MAY I FIND YOU AS SWEET, AS I DO THIS DAY.

VERY SINCERELY YOURS,

Don

I think I have never seen a more enthusiastic and cooperative school organization than that of the Trojan yearbook staff and sponsors. I take off my hat to you for the excellent job you are doing.

To the student body; I would like to express appreciation for the cooperative manner in which you have helped to build a program of education designed to develop each individual to the maximum of his potentialities.

*To the girl with the million-dollar
personality
J. Portwood Alley*

Principal's Message

It is a pleasure to work with the students, teachers, and school officials of A. C. Jones High School. It is the aim of every teacher and school official to furnish the opportunity to each student to get from life, both present and future, the best. Our job is to stimulate, encourage, and guide you to have the will to put forth the effort necessary to attain efficient scholarship, good leadership, and strong character. It is not enough for us to learn to adjust ourselves rapidly and pleasantly, to live and work happily with others, but we should give the unselfish service and co-operation required of intelligent citizens in every school or community.

Let me say again that I am happy to be associated with the students, teachers, and school officials of A. C. Jones High School.

J. Portwood Alley

To develop in the student the ability to direct himself in making his own right decisions in both personal and social problems: to lead him to feel that he must learn to live successfully, happily, and usefully in relation to himself, home, school, community, and nation is the aim and purpose of my work as counselor of A. HOME ECONOMIC III-A

Books are "one for all"—not all for one.
He takes all, there'll soon be none.

To have to pay a fine, it seems,
Is such a careless way with means.

The numbers on the backs of books
Are there to guide and not for looks.

Who takes a magazine from the
Is solid—when he puts it back.

In books lie hidden wondrous tales
Of continents and rivers;
Of seas and ships, and jungle lands;
Of aeroplanes and flivvers;
Of giants, ogres, elves and imps;
Of brownies, trolls, and fairies;
Of dunes and deserts, mountains high;
Of hills, and fertile prairies;
Of soldiers, sailors, patriots;
Of knights and kings and madmen;
Of minstrels, monks, and men-at-arms;
Of pirates, thieves, and bad men;
Of children black and children white,
Or yellow, red, or brown;
Of saints and sinners, teas and dinners;
City, country, town;
Of everything that you could name
From A clear through to Z;
For there are books—all sorts of books
Enough for you and me.

The guy who leaves the books all scattered
Should have his head ungently battered.

Treasured Memories

Your yearbook is a store of treasured memories. The oft repeated thrill of recollection which accompanies each new search through its pages will many times repay you for the care and consideration which has gone into its creation.

We are publishing 1948 Annuals for more than 900 Colleges and High Schools. This patronage indicates a wealth of ideas and service which has no doubt made possible the long record of our school annual achievement.
