Registration

On the morning of August 12, the Juniors and Seniors registered. The Sophomores registered the afternoon of the same day.

The following day, August 13, the Fish registered.

(middle) Looks like the line isn't long enough for Srs. Becky Sanchez and Kay Moreno, but it seems Carolyn Holubec likes the looks of it.

Bonfire Preparations

Many students spent their evenings of Oct. 11-13 collecting wood and stacking it into a pile in the field near the track. This was for the Bonfire the night before the Homecoming game.

(top) (l to r) Carl Hinderman, Lee Messer, Mario Ozuna, Ray Castillo are trying to build the bonfire from the top to the bottom.

(mid.) Sophs: John Valenta, David Weber are two hardworking kickers.

(bot. l) Hey Messer, waiting for privacy?

(bot. r) Come on Castillo, you're a Sr. now, so you can do it!

Bonfire

On Thurs. Oct. 14, the wood was lit and the bonfire began. The students were led in cheers by the cheerleaders. After the bonfire pep rally, the cheerleaders started the snake dance around the High School.

(top l) The bonfire was to cheer our mighty team, pictured here, onto victory for the Homecoming game. It was also to help raise the spirit of all the students.

(top r) Fish: Monna Malone does a cheer while the bonfire blazes.

(mid.) Srs. Bill Finch and Frank Kinkler add the flame to begin the bonfire and pep rally.

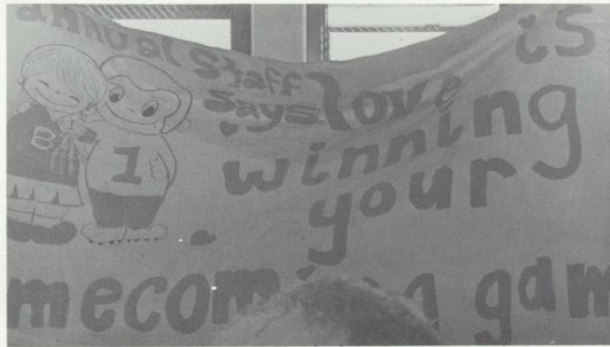

(bot.) The people are gone but the spirit remains while the bonfire burns on and on throughout the night.

Homecoming Pep Rally

The Trojan band led by the cheerleaders marched through the halls playing the fight song to get students in the mood for the pep rally. A parade of signs added to the spirited rally and the Homecoming Court was presented.

(top) Many spectators, both young and old, added their enthusiasm to the pep rally.

For many students Homecoming didn't end after the game. Thanks to the Trojan Athletic Booster Club a dance at Bee County College Student Union Building followed the game. "Contraband" from Austin played.

1971 Homecoming Court

The Homecoming festivities of electing a queen and her court of four princesses is sponsored each year by the Student Council. Everyone nominates a girl and the four girls with the highest votes from each class are nominees. They were: Fresh: Sharon Beauchamp, SYLVIA HINDERMAN, MONNA MALONE, Becky Rivas, Sophs: Nancy Avery, TERRI MOORE, Martha Nance, LINDA RODRIQUEZ, Jrs: DEBBIE GUERRA, Debbie Jones, BEAU LASITER, Bridget Nance, Srs: BETH ANN AVERY, Diana Baggio, SYLVIA GARZA, BECKY SANCHEZ. These were voted on and the semifinalists elected. They are as capitalized.

(mid) After being crowned the court sat at the side for the third quarter of the game. Sitting are Monna, Terri, Beth Ann, Becky, Beau.

(bot) Each girl was crowned by Vicki Elder. (r to l) Monna, Terri, Beth Ann, Becky, Beau.

BETH ANN AVERY 1971 QUEEN

Annual Dance Preparations

The Annual Dance decorations were worked on at night during the week of Nov. 1-5 by Annual Staff members and other interested students. Sat. morning Nov. 6, students and members of various clubs helped in the decorating of the gym and stage.

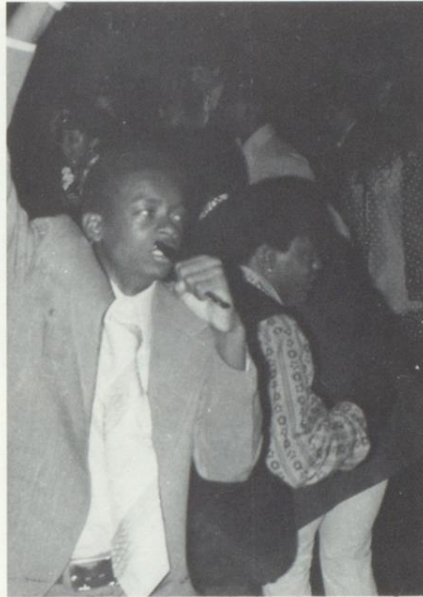

(r) "Now, what do we do?" asked Fish: Suzanne Steele, Pasty Hester, Jr: Marie Donnell.

(bot.) Jrs: Brian Ferguson and Mary Gail Hester are awed by the decorations.

Annual Dance

On the night of Nov. 6 from 8-9 the Annual Presentations were made in the auditorium. Looking in their Glass Ball were announcers Beth Ann Avery and Kathy Roberts. There to entertain everyone with a dance to "Aquarius" were Sophs., Diane Hakari, Tani Mitchell, Becky Ragsdale, and Fish Donna McKennon, Suzanne Steele. Following the presentations was the Annual Dance in the gym from 9-1 with the theme of "Astrology." "Phoenix" from Austin played.

Welfare Drive

Before Christmas vacation Student Council sponsors a welfare drive for needy families in Beeville. This year each class filled one or more boxes with food, clothing, and toys. Key Club members took the boxes to the place for distribution.

Better move and let the Key Club members and the welfare boxes through.

Best Over-All Door

Best Over-All door was won by room 19, Mr. McCampbell's class, who received the refreshments from Student Council. The door at right was the winning door with (l to r) Luciano Garcia and Henry Pena, the artists.

Christmas Doors

This year before Christmas holidays seventh period classes decorated their doors for competition. Members of the Rosetta Club judged the doors. The class winning Best Over-All received refreshments from the Student Council.

(top l) Room 12, Miss Perez's door won first place Religious.

(top r) Room 21, Mr. Rubright's door won first place Subject Related. The skeleton would like you to meet his friend Mr. Rubright.

(bot. l) VOE, Mrs. Arthur's door won first place Novelty. Mrs. Arthur proudly presents her door.

First Semester

The assemblies held the first semester included the Christmas assembly with a play starring, Saragoza Martinez as Santa Claus and Debbie Jones as Mrs. Santa Claus. Mr. Wilson, dressed like Santa, played his part when he gave Mr. McCoy, Mr. McGuill, Mr. Wingenter, John Marks Silva, and Roberto Merlo presents and gag gifts. John Marks was Santa's "little" helper. The band contributed to the assemblies by entertaining everyone with music.

Top: Mr. Breaux, completely involved in the music, conducts the band.

Bot.: This is the part the audience never sees, only hears.

Assemblies

(top l) All eyes anxiously await the command of the "hands."

(top r) An added attraction of the Lubbock Christian College Band was a folk group.

(bot. l) Members of the Harding College Choir of Arkansas are deep in concentration while performing for an assembly.

(bot. r) It's time to get ready for the Lubbock Christian College Band before their performance at our assembly.

It's not the outcome of the actual game that's important,
It's the companionship you

Freshman season consisted of two wins and five losses.

Football is a challenging and rewarding sport. It is also a demanding sport, not always accompanied by glory. This year, Juan Solorza, lost his life during the football season. His glory can never come from the football field, but it will come in the knowledge that he was a true "TROJAN."

Raiders Raze Trojans

Due to hurricane Fern, the Season's opener with Gregory-Portland on September 10 was cancelled.

The following Friday, September 17, the mighty Trojans faced the Victoria Stroman Raiders in a game marked by bad luck. Spectators, as well as players battled the mud and the mosquitos. The absence of the Pep Squad and the Band, delayed by a flat tire, marred the first quarter of play. The Raiders took the lead early, and when the first half of play was over, Stroman led 13-0.

The second half was no better for the Trojan offense, but the defense held the Raiders on several strategic plays.

Despite the determination of the Trojans, the final score was a heartbreaking 33-0 in favor of the Raiders.

Knights and Texans Triumph

On September 24, the public turned out to witness the Trojan's second game against the Austin McCallum Knights. Despite the watery deluge, which soaked players and fans alike, the Trojans fought with courage and resolution to end the game on the short side of 28 to 7.

The following week Beeville traveled to Corpus Christi's Cabaniss Field to confront the Ray Texans. Each team allowed the other only one touchdown during the first half, which ended with the score 7-6 in favor of Ray.

The Texans came back to score three touchdowns in the last half to win the game 20-6.

Trojans Proclaimed "Team of the Week"

October 4 was the date of the Beeville Trojans' greatest defeat and victory - defeat on the scoreboard, but victory in the minds of players, coaches, fans, and the Corpus Christi Caller.

The game commenced with Beasley Field overflowing with a Parents' Night crowd. The Buccaneers made a quick seven points early in the game, but the Trojans did not allow the expected rerun of previous games to continue. Dropping the passing strategy used in previous games, the Trojans utilized a running attack led by Carl Hinderman and Robert Hudman. The adopted strategy worked to the Trojans' advantage and produced a touchdown in the second quarter. The Trojans alternately rushed and passed to finish the first half with a 13-7 lead.

The third period was quiet; the fourth, riotous. Early in the fourth the Trojans again scored another six points. But the Buccaneers recovered long enough to score a touchdown, now behind 20-14. The Bucs again scored in the last seven seconds in what has come to be known as the "play of the disputed handoff." The kick after left the score an unbelievable 21-20 in favor of Miller.

For the Trojans, the defeat ended on the field; the victory came Monday morning. The Corpus Christi Caller proclaimed the Beeville Trojans as the Team of the Week, "the perennial, but courageous loser," who won the pride and respect of all.

Moody and Alice Stifle Trojans

Trojans score against Alice.

Elvie Tippens catches pass.

Hoping again to utilize the running attack adopted in the Miller game, the Beeville Trojans prepared for the battle of the Trojans. The stands were packed with alumni and students who had shown unprecedented spirit during the week following the Miller game.

However, the Moody Trojans had the advantage; they were geared for the running attack which had surprised Miller in the previous game. Unable to move on the ground, Beeville had to switch to an air attack, but not before Moody took the halftime lead of 16-0, the culmination of two touchdowns and a safety.

Both teams scored two touchdowns each in the last half of play, with the final score being 29-12.

The following week the Trojans journeyed to Alice to meet the future District 27-4A champions. Unable to stop the Coyotes or to score against the powerful team, the Trojans left the southwest town on the underside of the score, 41-7.

Bulls and Horses Trample Trojans

On October 29, the Beeville Trojans faced the Corpus Christi King Mustangs in a contest which ended in a 41-6 loss for the Trojans. The Mustangs built a 20-0 lead in the first quarter. By halftime, the Mustangs had gained another seven points. No one scored in the third quarter. The Trojans put six points on the scoreboard in the fourth quarter, but was unable to stop the rushing and passing game of King. Joe Hoffman recovered two of six King fumbles. Johnny Leal punted a 68 yarder, the longest one he kicked all season.

The following week, the Beeville Trojans confronted the visiting Kingsville Brahmas at Beasley Stadium. In the first quarter, both teams remained scoreless. By the end of the second quarter, Kingsville led 12-0.

After the half, the Brahmas advanced to bring the score to 20-0. The Trojans took possession of the ball at the first of the fourth quarter. Under the direction of QB Randy Fowler, Beeville scored on an aerial pass to Narciso Trevino, with Fowler kicking the point after. The Brahmas scored twice before the game ended with the score 33-7.

Trojan Johnny Leal kicks off and is supported by the defense.

Tigers Tear Trojans

The Trojans played their last game of the season at Beasley Stadium on November 12. The Corpus Christi Carroll Tigers won with the final score of 49-0. The Trojans managed to get the ball twice in the first quarter, but each time they had to give it up. Carroll took a 14-0 lead at the end of the first quarter and a 21-0 lead by halftime. Because the Trojans were unable to complete only four passes in the game, their scoring ability was greatly diminished.

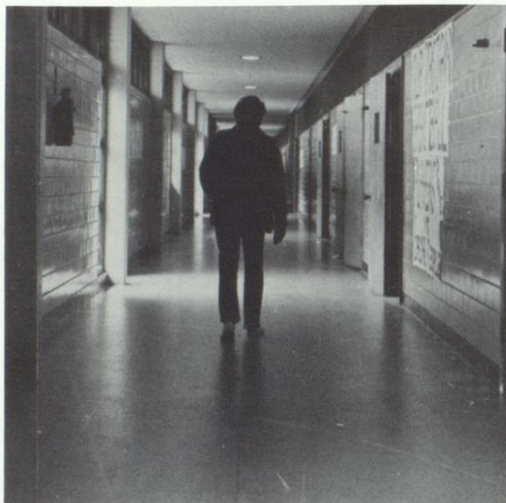

This was the last game for seniors Joe Esquivel; Joe Hoffman; Robert Hudman; Johnny Leal, tri-captain; Joe Pittman; Bob Richey, tri-captain; Elvie Tippens, tri-captain; Jerry Trevino; and Robert Harry Trevino. Carl Hinderman and Robbie Trevino also played their last game due to the eligibility rules.

The entire Beeville Trojan team displayed determination, ability, and stamina throughout the 1971 season. Head coach Sandy Sands expressed his feeling about the team when he commented after the Miller game, "It's hard to keep going when you're losing, but our players still came up with a heck of an effort."

Student Advisory Committee

Top: Sylvia Hinderman and Debbie Guerra

Bottom: Elvie Tippens, Richard Milliken, Warren Peterson, and Conrad Contreras

Last year our school district was visited by representatives of the U.S. Department of Health, Education, and Welfare. After looking at our school system, the representatives felt that we needed to work out a plan that would increase understanding and cooperation among the different ethnic groups in our schools. The plan finally decided upon was a human relations study among students in grades 7 through 12. The idea was for us to try to understand some of our problems and to look for ways of solving them.

The plan was started in October when the Student Councils of the Thomas Jefferson Junior High School and the A. C. Jones High School nominated three Mexican Americans, three Anglos, and three Blacks to serve as members of the Student Advisory Committee. Three of the students were from the Thomas Jefferson Junior High School and six were from the A. C. Jones High School.

ALMA MATER

We pledge our honor to the orange and white,

We will be loyal through the day and night, and

Even when we are losing we are winning too,

With our high spirits and hearts so true.

of 1972

FITE SONG

Hail to the Trojans, cheer them along their way.

Onward to victory: may they win again today.

We'll give a cheer for the Trojans.

Long may they reign supreme.

Shout: Till the echoes ring,

For the glory of our team.

Roberto Merlo

Roberto Merlo, American Field Service Exchange student, is a native of Vercelli, Italy. He is the oldest in his family with one sister. His father is the Chief of Police.

Roberto became interested in the program when he heard someone talking about the United States. He arrived in Beeville on August 6, as an upcoming Senior. He is living with Rev. Dr. and Mrs. B. C. Brown.

Roberto likes to play volleyball and the trumpet, and he enjoys cooking. On a trip to Houston he had his picture taken with President Johnson's wife.

Roberto is a member of Key Club, Student Council, Quill & Scroll, American Field Service Club, of which he was selected beau, and the Trojan newspaper staff.

Foreign Exchange Student

Top l: During the final assembly Roberto took everyone on a tour of Italy through films.

Top r: Roberto's stay in Beeville gradually comes to an end as he stands with his friends at Graduation Exercises.

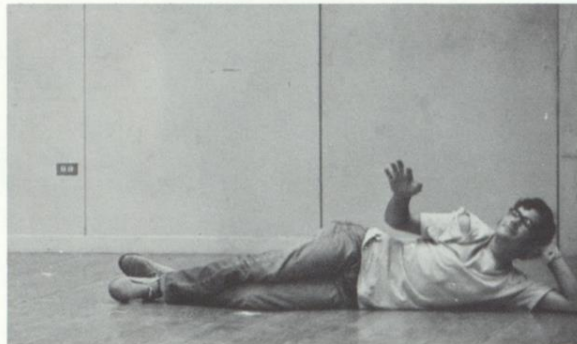

Both Mrs. McCampbell and Roberto are pleased with his English certificate.

"You're a Good Man, Charlie Brown"

The musical "You're a Good Man, Charlie Brown" was held Jan. 27 and 29 in the high school auditorium. Members of the cast were Srs. John Griffing, Hardy Koenig, Ray Richey, Jr. Bob Young, Soph. Tani Mitchell, Fresh. Sheryle Gordon. Many hours of hard work by cast members and members of the Poor Boy Players went into the production of this play.

Top: Richey at practice plays his part as Snoopy. Mid. l.: Koenig playing Schroeder tries to lead Linus-Young, Lucy-Tani, Patty-Sheryle, and Charlie Brown-Griffing in a song.

Mid. r.: Lucy sings Schroeder a love song while he plays his piano. Bot.: Griffing is a frustrated Charlie Brown. Jr. Karen Pollard, Stage Manager, stands backstage directing props to keep practice running smoothly.

Exchange Student for a Week

Ana Maria Raddi of Brasil attended our school February 6-12. While in America she is staying with a family in Houston and attends Memorial High School. While staying in Beeville she was a member of the Griffing family. Gayle is a junior and John is a senior.

Top: Senior John Griffing watches Ana Maria open her present from the AFS Club.

Middle: Ana Maria and Senior Janie Villareal examine her present.

Middle r.: Ana Maria speaks to the students.

Bottom: Junior Curtis Hinderman waits his turn to talk with Ana Maria.

Flag Raising

The flag raising ceremony was held March 9. The Trojan band played "The Star Spangled Banner" while the Chase Field Color Guard raised the flag. President John Marks Silva led the students in the Pledge of Allegiance. Afterwards the students went to their respective classes.

Athletic Banquet

This year the Banquet was in honor of all athletes participating in any sport.

It was held at the BCC Student Center on Saturday, April 22, and sponsored by the Trojan Athletic Booster Club. The guest speaker was Bailey M. Marshall, UIL Athletic Director. The coaches introduced the members of the teams they coached. Various presentations were made and each athlete that lettered received an orange and white wooden Trojan head. The banquet ended with the cheerleaders leading the Alma Mater.

National Honor Society Assembly

Twenty students were inducted into the National Honor Society Mon., April 24. The seniors are Tommy Pfeil, Charlet Kyser, and Roberto Merlo. The juniors are Chip Latcham, Susan Sugarek, Beau Lasiter, Ivy Walker, Linda Olsen, Beverly Taylor, and Robin Ragsdale. The sophomores are Alma Reyes, Carl Pivonka, Sam Myers, Kathleen Janysek, Ann Serridge, Norman Damerau, Sharon Herrmann, Gay Johnson, Gail Chatham, and Nancy Avery.

Top l: Senior members Cathy Payne and Robyn Reynolds received the honors of pinning the carnation on each new member.

Top r: Mr. McCoy stands guard while sophomore Gail Chatham signs the list for the new members. Mid: The old senior members, as well as the new members, take the oath lead by President Craig Blankenship.

Bot.: Mrs. Kuhnert, sponsor, Mr. Roberts, and Mr. McCoy listen while seniors Tommy, Charlet, and Roberto, as well as the other new members, take the oath.

Prom

In the gym on April 6 junior and senior girls played in a "powder puff" basketball game to earn money for the Prom. The Juniors beat the Seniors 21-19. At a later date junior boys played the Coaches and won 60-40.

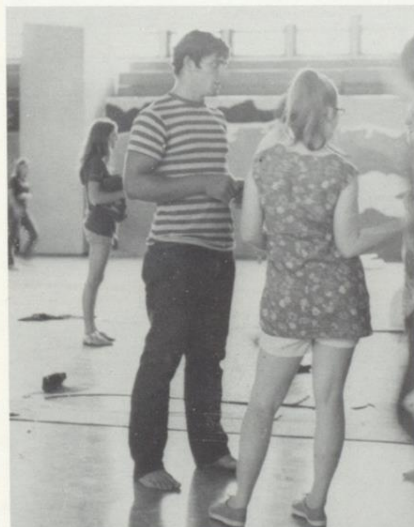

Top right: Seniors Rosie Ramirez, Lulu Martinez, Janie Villareal go after junior Debbie Rudeloff who has the ball. Coach Greenwood is prepared to blow the whistle any minute and junior Debbie O'Brien thinks the whole thing is just one big laugh.

The Juniors worked on the Prom Monday-Friday, April 24-28.

Junior-Senior

The Junior-Senior Banquet was held in the Central Cafeteria on April 28. Top r: Traditional Hawaiian dances were performed by sophomores (l-r) Nancy Avery, Tani Mitchell, Teresa Davis, Ann Seridge, and Martha Nance. Master of Ceremonies for the entertainment was Sharon Herrmann.

Dressed in gay Hawaiian prints, girls from the Sophomore Class served at the banquet.

First row: Judy McCoy, Glenda Stephenson, Sylvia Ortiz, Linda Rodriguez, Gay Johnson, Debbie Butler, Katy Brady, Geraldine DeLaGarza, Ida Garza, and Susan Sikes.

Second row: Ruby Sanchez, Zendida Ramirez, Jenny Moya, JoAnn Jaramillo, Carolyn Smith, Gail Chatham, Lisa Laechelin, Debbie Denkeler.

Third row: Margaret Ortiz, Blanca Salazar, Denise Davis, Cynthia Perez, Ann Bradford, Iantha Richardson, Alma Reyes, Jane Polk, and Cathy Winkle.

Banquet

Top right: The Senior Class Will was read by seniors Wayne Herrmann and Yoli Salazar.

Middle: Wonder what the attraction could be that has everyone's attention!

Bottom: Several junior girls presented gifts to their sponsors. Marie Donnell presents Mr. Payne his gift for his help. Other sponsors were Mr. Todd, Mrs. Curbo, Coach Greenwood, and Mrs. Bostwick.

1972 QUEEN
BETH ANN AVERY

1972 KING
JOE ESQUIVEL

There was a Hawaiian theme to set the mood for the Prom which was held in the gym on April 28. The band was "Star" from Dallas. Top: Beth Ann and Joe were crowned by last year's Prom Queen, Sophie Ortega. Bottom: Coach Greenwood and Mrs. Bostwick, sponsors, appear to have a "souring" affect on junior, Debbie Rudeloff.

Prom

Middle: Junior Chip Latcham looks like he's had about all he can take.

Political Assembly

The Political Assembly was held May 2, in the auditorium. Candidates running for Head Cheerleader are juniors (l to r) Bridget Nance, Debbie Jones, Beau Lasiter. Candidates running for Vice-President are Robin Ragsdale and Delma Villarreal. Not pictured are candidates running for President who are Nancy Blount and Eddie DeRusse.

Bridget talks with upcoming freshman Vicki Thomas, sophomore Martha Sandoval, and junior Debbie Guerra before they speak for her.

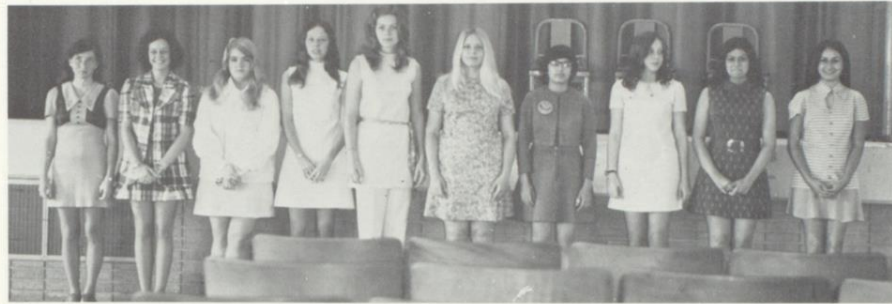

Beau gives a big smile during her campaign speech.

As students walk into the auditorium and find seats, campaign signs greet them everywhere.

Rotary Assembly

The Rotary Assembly was held May 17. The girls nominated for the Rotary award are seniors (l to r) Sonya Stewart, Debbie Robie, Denise Wardlaw, Lana Kay Percy, Beth Ann Avery, Liz Damerau, Rosie Perez, Robyn Reynolds, Mary Carrizales, and Rosie DelBosque.

The guest speaker at the assembly was Dr. B. C. Brown.

Cheerleaders

Cheerleader tryouts were held Thursday, May 11, in the gym. The cheerleader squad consists of two seniors and a head cheerleader (previously voted on), two juniors, one sophomore, and one freshman. Running for senior cheerleaders are (L-R) Petra Moron, Marie Donnell, Robin Ragsdale, Mary Gail Hester, Beau Lasiter, and Debbie Jones, and for junior cheerleaders Denise Davis and Ann Bradford.

Becky smiles approvingly as Ramiro performs.

"Come fly with me," says Nancy.

Tryouts

Running for junior cheerleader is Nancy Avery. Running for sophomore cheerleader are (L-R) Karen Key, Bonnie Robie, and Monna Malone, and for freshman cheerleader are Rebecca Welder, Mary Ann Sanchez, Cindy McAulay, Marcia Millikin, Suzanna Garza, Karen Patton, and Debbie Schroeder. Introducing each girl is the former head cheerleader, Becky Sanchez.

The results of the cheerleader election were posted the following afternoon on the door near the Office.

It's not easy to jump this high. Ask Suzanna.

That's Monna? Behind the hair.

Second Semester

This semester, to provide more space and have less students at one time, they held two assemblies when it was possible.

Top: To begin the new way of holding assemblies, a guest from A & M gave a program on "The Atomic World." One of his experiments was with a ball with radiation. Monte Krueger, freshman, Warren Peterson and Jack Seals, seniors, caught the balls and had to go on stage to have them checked.

Middle: That machine must really turn Joan Adkins, junior, on. It gives her the frizzies, anyway.

Assemblies

Top l: The one act play that went to contest was "Infancy." The cast members presented the play in two assemblies for the students. Freshman, Sheryle Gordon is making her move towards Senior, Hardy Koenig.

Top r: The band practiced playing their contest numbers by presenting two assemblies for the students. Sophomore, Randy Hatfield did his part on the Contrabass Clarinet.

Middle: The Mixed Choir sang at the patriotism assembly to put everyone in a patriotic mood.

Bottom: Rudy Gonzales, 1971 Governor of Boy's State, gave a talk on patriotism. Listening intently to his speech is John Marks Silva, president.

Final Assembly

The Student Council assembly was held on May 25.

Middle: John Marks Silva hands over the gavel to the new president, Eddie DeRusse.

Bottom: Mr. McCoy and Roberto Merlo calmly listen to the new Student Council members being installed. They are Debbie Guerra, Sharon Herrmann, Mary Gail Hester, Tani Mitchell, and Bob Young. Behind them are Martha Espinosa and the other members.

Final Day

The last day of school was May 30. The office was filled with students checking in their books and locks.

Mid.: All right, Carl, this is a line to check in locks, not to start a romance."

Bot l: "A penny for your thoughts Terri."

Bot. r: "Patsy, it's your fault," says Mr. McCampbell.

Baccalaureate Services

Top l: Mr. Erler and Mr. Garza measure Bob Richey for his cap and gown.

Baccalaureate Services were held in the High School Auditorium on May 28.

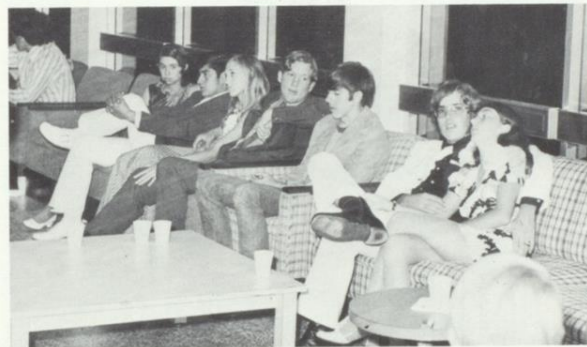

Top r: Jackie Mayberry seems like he's having a problem keeping his hat on.

Mid. l: Is this a line-up?

Mid. r: Reverend Polk gives the sermon at Baccalaureate.

Bot. The senior choir members sing "Born Free".

Graduation Dance

Middle: Seniors are relieved after a graduation.

Class of '72

This year for the first time the Commencement Exercises were held at Beasley Stadium on Tuesday, May 30.

Top l.: Coming in, Maria Carrizales, Becky Sanchez, Abbie Megason, and Jackey Mayberry show mixed feelings.

Mid.: These are the graduates and a stadium full of families and friends backing them.

Bot.: John Marks, Student Body President, welcomes everyone to Graduation.

Graduates

Top l: Robyn, the 1972 Salutatorian, gives her speech. She has a 95.2 average for all four years of high school.

Top r: Sonya, the 1972 Valedictorian gives her speech. She has a 95.75 average for all four of her high school years.

Mid.: James Boyd has his future in mind while Ray Castillo still can't believe he's graduating.

Bot.: The senior band members play one last time with the band.

Basketball Monologue

The ticket line seems extra long tonight. The game should be a real thriller. At last, I get my ticket; ten minutes have already gone by. I walk into the gym door and present my ticket where the smell of tuna fish hits my nose. Some one must have waited to eat their supper here. The cheering pierces the air. I can hardly wait to get inside where things are happening. All these people in front of me walk slowly on purpose because they know I'm in a hurry. I make it inside just in time to see the cheerleaders run out to lead the first cheer. The crowd is going wild. By the time I find my friends, Becky Sanchez is near the end of the yell while standing on John Marks Silva and Ramiro Castillo's shoulders. As always I missed seeing the first yell.

The buzzer sounds and the game is about to begin. The teams are getting ready for the beginning jump ball. The ball is in the air. They hit it. Lao Trevino and Johnny Leal run for the ball.

The ball is dribbled down the court. By the tips of his fingers, Bob Richey may make a basket, if the guard's hands don't block it at the last second. The crowd is going wild, cheering for Richey. He makes a basket!

As the ball is passed from player to player down the court, the game progresses. Looks like a jump ball is in store for Lao Trevino and a player of the other team. The jump ball is over; the game is on again. The cheerleaders lead a chant to keep the crowd on their toes. Hands reach out for the ball, but it soars over their heads to someone down the court. It travels to tall Richey who just might have a basket made, as his opponent looks up helplessly. The crowd is wild!

The game proceeds with the roaring of the crowd led by the cheerleaders. Richey will have a basket made if he isn't blocked. The game is going at a tremendous pace with the Trojans in the lead by one point. During a time out, it takes overwhelming power of concentration from our team members, who are trying to catch their breath before being sent back into play. As I look around me, my attention is focused on junior Terry Gonzales. She hasn't taken her eyes from the court, since I've been watching her. I wonder who her eyes are so steadily following? Oh, no, it looks like someone on their team got hurt. Oh, dear, what did I miss? It seems like my eyes always look away at the wrong time. Now the crowd is quiet, wondering if the guy will be all right. It turns out he only hurt his ankle. The ball is over and the game is starting again. The buzzer. Now, what? Oh, it's half time.

The crowd leaves the stands and it's wall to wall people around the snack bar. No matter which way I turn, I bump into someone else. It's starting to get stuffy and I haven't even made it half way to the door to the outside. My lungs are crying for fresh air. At last, I made it. Oh dear, now I've lost my friends. Where are they? Oh, good, here comes one. I wish he'd hurry. The people are starting to thin out of the room. Guess I'll go back in and get a Coke. Well, how about that? I just got my Coke and the buzzer blew to start the next quarter.

There's the opening jump ball accompanied by a chant from the cheerleaders and crowd. A Trojan is fouled. After the free throw, James Goodman makes a successful rebound while those below wait in anticipation. Someone fouled Goodman. His shot is good! Two more points for the Trojans! Now our team has called a time out. I wonder what the coach is telling them now?

The cheerleaders are running out for a quick cheer. They are doing "Hey, Gang" in hopes of a good response from the crowd. Their wish is granted as junior Debbie Jones does a jump. The buzzer is sounded, the cheerleaders quickly run in, and the game continues at a steady pace.

This game is going by fast. Right now, we are twenty points ahead of our opponent. Coach Greenwood has called time out; the reserves are getting ready to go in. It looks like all of them want to play. (Left) Now the game is really fast. Our second string is fresh; their first string is tired. Oh, no, their team makes two baskets in a row. It looks like the starters, Narciso Trevino, James Goodman, and Jerry Trevino, are worried about the progress of the game. (Center) They shouldn't have worried. Our boys wouldn't let the other team catch up so quickly. Two more points for the Trojans! There are still three minutes left in the game.

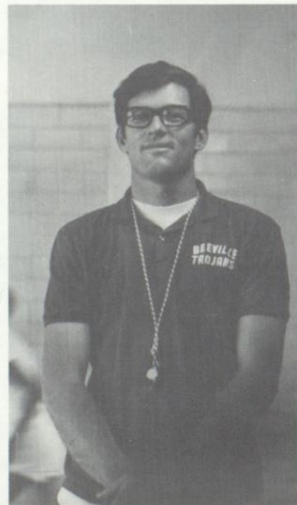

Oh, I wish this game would be over. The other team is closing the gap, even though the second string is working hard. Good, the Trojans are holding their ten point lead. Only thirty seconds. The other team is putting on the pressure. Twenty seconds left. The whistle. One of our boys fouls. The clock is stopped. The shooter makes it. Now only nine points ahead. We move the ball down the court, we are stalling. 10 . . . 9 . . . 8 . . . 7 . . . 6 . . . 5 . . . 4 . . . 3 . . . 2 . . . 1. Hooray! We won! Jerry Trevino and Joe Esquivel (right) look relieved.

Individual achievement by players highlighted the 1972 baseball season. In their second season of play in Conference 36-AAAA, the Trojans produced a good record of statistics, and several players ranked among the best in the district.

Elvie Tippens stacked up a superior record in his senior year. Not only was he among the top ten in the district in runs-batted-in, but he was also runner-up to the district leader in home-runs. For his playing ability, he was awarded the medal in baseball.

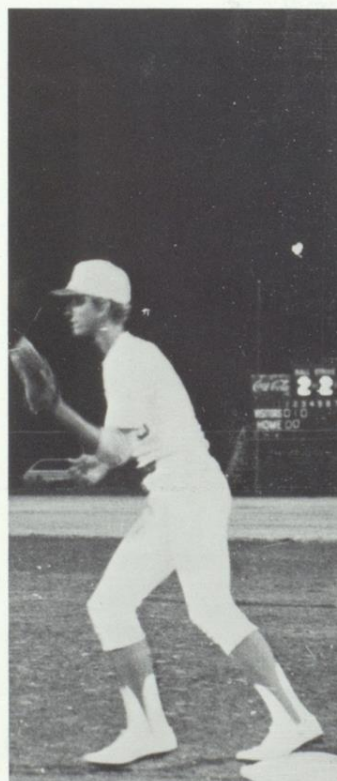

Several other Trojans produced impressive records. Pitcher Jerry Trevino threw a no-hitter against Moody. Johnny Leal ranked eighth in the district in the number of hits; Danny Hemphill ranked tenth. At the Kenedy Tournament, Elvie Tippens, Narciso Trevino, Johnny Leal, Monte Gibson, and Frank Benavidez were named to the All-Tourney Team.

...CPL electricity... the power behind the good things in life. Like your music loud? Turn on power that gives you real volume at a low cost. Want a break from dishwashing? Load them in an electric dishwasher and away you go. Want convenience? Get a load of little things... like an electric toothbrush, coffeemaker, hair curlers, power saw. Then cool it... with electric air conditioning. The hidden asset behind them all is low cost, dependable electricity... Go Power.
