LOOK FOR A.C. JONES

To the senior
Class of '96
C.J.

"Being yearbook editor has been pretty tough. Things have had to be changed and priorities had to be set straight. I had a great staff to work with and—above all—a great teacher. I know I nagged absolutely too much but the outcome is a great book."

Veronica Saldana

"It never failed.

Everytime something went wrong, I was to blame. But I do have to admit, I'm gonna miss this bunch. Oh Veronica, no matter how much you deny it, I'm still assistant editor."

Clarissa Soliz

"I have really enjoyed working with everyone on the yearbook staff. It will be so different without the seniors next year. I'll miss all of them, even Clarissa."

Michelle Speer

"Working on this yearbook staff has been a rewarding & memorable experience. Flip through this book 10 years down the road. You'll see that the annual creatively captures every aspect of 95-96; memories will become realities as you watch the year unfold once again." - Alicia Gratton

Our Time is Now...

"The whole staff is a major pain in the neck, but I love em anyway. Mr. Thrasher, well he's Mr. Thrasher; nough said."

Crystal Silva

"When I came to this class, I thought that with the staff's knowledge and with my input received in the past, we could make a perfect yearbook. I ended up with my dreams shattered and with ideas torn. However, I gained the knowledge that helped me learn to please just about everyone. I admire everyone else's effort also."

Scott Schneider

Time for the class of '96 to take charge...

"Being chosen as senior class officers shows us that our peers feel that we can make this year one that we'll never forget."

"As senior class officers, we worked to be examples for the class and tried to make the year fun and memorable for everyone."

It Will Be A Time We Will Always Remember

I'm a SENIOR!

Turning Back the "If I Knew Then....."

Tanya and Donna

....I would have told my dad how much I loved him before it was too late. I would not have been embarrassed to show my affection for my parents, because they were who got me here today. I would not have been the smart alec that I am towards my teachers, for they are the ones who gave me my education. I am an anxious senior and ready to graduate, but I am afraid to leave my high school years behind and start a new, grown up life.-Tanya Wood

..I would maybe have a girlfriend.-

Student Life

On April 2, 1996, Alicia

Gratton and Armando Chavez

were astonished to learn that they were the benefactors of the generous Barnhart Scholarships.

The students are guaranteed $5,000 for their freshman years, and that amount can be extended for up to four years. All juniors in the top 20% of the class were eligible to apply for the honor; six students moved on to the interview phase, and these two emerged as the recipients.

"I am definitely surprised—but elated! I'll never forget the generosity of the Barnhart Committee." Alicia Gratton

Barnhart Scholars

Senior Wall

During Spring Break, four seniors (Chris Garcia, Joel Bernsen, Kristine Stevens, and Veronica Saldana) organized a new SENIOR WALL. The wall was painted next to the biology wing where the old senior locker bay once stood. The students hope to leave their mark to show they have accomplished something in their high school years.

"WE HOPE IT TURNS OUT WELL AND EVERYBODY LIKES IT."

Happiness radiates from Senior Amber Linney after being crowned. She proudly represented the Class of '96.

May, Chris, what are you pointing at? Senior Chris Gareis experiences his first Barreling of the B at A. C. Jones High.

Trojan Spirit penetrated every nook of air around the school during Homecoming Week. Javier Ray Espinoza and John Salinas show they're true Trojans.

The Trojan Band was the backbone of the festivities, providing that loud, beating music that Trojan fans love..

Dedication was easily seen on the faces of those who spent hours upon hours in grueling practice. As a result, the band constantly entertained fans with their show-stopping music. This was evident on Homecoming especially.

OMING

"I think it's a very talented group, but it's one of the toughest districts in the state and our depth is limited. My optimistic hope is for at least 7 or 8 wins. A lot of that depends on how healthy we stay."

Coach Voss

Pre-season:

"I think this is the year the dog will fall. We'll be very competitive within our district."

Coach Grossman

"I think we'll do good this year. I think they're going to make the playoffs."

Arkie Tevino

"I think they're going to do great this year, but they lost a lot of potential when last year's seniors graduated."

Michelle Wishart

"Our team is full of athletes with big hearts who don't know any other way to play than all out. I'm looking forward to every game being played in that way. If we can just do that, the wins will come."

Ciri Villarreal

"We lost a lot of good seniors last year, so... who knows how this year may turn out? I'm sure we'll do very well though, we always do."

Clarissa Alantiz

"We have a lot of potential and if we utilize it correctly I feel that there's no stopping us."

Henry Gomez

Post-season:

"It was a little disappointing this year, but our guys tried hard."

Craig Moehnke

"In the beginning things were very slow, but when we won our first District game we realized what we were capable of doing."

Marcus Herrera

"I had fun playing with the seniors. It was a good experience and they taught me a lot."

Andrew Auzton

"After our winning season my first year on Varsity, everybody expected us to go 10-0 this year, but we had to adjust to a new coach. I thought we did pretty well our first year with Coach Taylor."

RUNNING INSPIRED!

tries to finish with the gold. As the sand finishing lead and finish with her fastest

Struggles And Conflicts. That is what the 1995-96 Cross Country had to deal with. Although it may not have been what the runners had in mind when they joined the team, that's what they got. After a good base was established, the season took off on a fast running pace toward success. "To some people it may not seem like success, but to the people who ran... it was. In our minds we accomplished a lot," Loa Tucker commented.

From the beginning of the season the team had a blast. From putting make-up on Ciri Villarreal to throwing Gummi Bears out the window and Armando Chavez playing the guitar, it was like being little kids again. The running was a different story and it showed us that we should deal with life as if we were running a race and had a specific destination.

The Cross Country team accomplished a lot. From picking up our times to making Coach Webb proud, we somehow along the way accomplished what we had in mind of reaching our goals. "To me Cross Country is not just a sport that takes determination, time and stamina, but also a willingness to win, run hard and never give up," Julie Embrey commented. And if you look back at the season you could see that that is exactly what we did.

Seeing Coach Webb and Loa Tucker together like mother and daughter was awe inspiring before our biggest run.

Time Flies When You're Having Fun

Hey, can you find a cuter bunch than these guys, or what?? Trojan band seniors get together and strike a pose for the camera.

Marissa Velasquez and Jr. Mark Rodriguez are too exhausted to do much of anything after a long day of marching in San Antonio.

Hey-Maria remember what I told you earlier about Mr. Knowlton, well.....Fsh. Maria Alaniz and Sr. Josh Perkins are sharing a little band gossip.

A little hard work, determination, and some practice help make the dreams of this band come true.

Booooo! How'd you get that to come out of your nose? Sr. Sarah Hazelard and Soph. Jesse Maldonado look on as Mr. Knowlton entertains the rest of the bus.

Hey, why are all of ya'll staring at me for, do I have something on my teeth?? Jr. Marcos Gonzales and Sr. Angelica Alvarado are just a bit on the weird side.

Here, Cassidi, enjoy yourself.

INTERACT is the high school division of Rotary International. The primary purpose is to be a service organization for the community. A.C. Jones INTERACT adopted the Foster Children of Bee County as their service project. Their projects have included playing Santa Claus to these children and having an Easter Egg hunt for them. The club has also participated in the Western Week parade, the CROP walk, the March of Dimes March America walk, the Muscular Dystrophy Bike-a-Thon, and the Bee County Public Library Christmas Tree Forest. INTERACT has been active at A.C. Jones since 1990.

What a Great way to start the year... with a PARTY!!!

Members share their Christmas spirit, while discovering that giving presents is as much fun as receiving them.

Speech and Drama are two of the best clubs a student can be in. One can learn so much about themselves. They learn to be more confident and independent. Students also learn self control as well as discipline. This years speech and drama went places, they went further than they had gone in years. Speech and drama sponsor Patricia Munoz is very proud of both organizations. It was alot of hard work, but well worth the outcome.

Good Luck, next year speech and drama!

"Darwin said life is just one competition. A. D. is hard core competition."

Ciriaco Villarreal

"A. D. is great. It's a lot of hard work, but fun too. Not only did I learn about social science, fine arts, etc., but I also learned about personal study habits."

Rachel Allard

"Academic Decathlon was very challenging. It was fun and exciting...I liked being in A.D., and if I were going to be here next year, I would still like to be in it."

Ricky Mendez

"Unlike most UIL events, Academic Decathlon allows you to use your individual strengths to make you stand out, while still benefitting the team as a whole."

Andrew Anderson

"Although our school lacks the variety of subjects that are found in larger schools, Academic Decathlon allows a student to have an opportunity to study other subjects such as fine arts..."

Monica Puenie

"Besides being able to answer more of the questions on Jeopardy, A.D. has benefitted me in a myriad of ways."

The thrill of competition was easily noticed around the A. C. Jones campus during the UIL season. Many students and coaches donated a great deal of time in order for our school to compete with others in this tough district. Some participated for fun, others joined in to learn, and still more sought to win. Congratulations to all who participated, especially those who advanced to the region and state levels.

While students struggled to stay awake in class, these three perseveren individuals spent many hours striving to improve all aspects of this school district. The entire administration encouraged excellence in academics, athletics, music, and much more. They tackled tough issues like year-round school and met a lot of adversity. However, they persevered and we thank them. Their jobs are not easy and many times unrewarding; however, because of their efforts, Beeville Independent School District is improving slowly, but surely.

The 1995 - 1996 Year-end Summary

So much has happened in the last nine months. For so many people there were several new challenges, especially for us seniors. I'm sure Mr. Chapa, the senior counselor, was excited to see so many students interested in college. He was probably tired of seeing me in his office (by the end of the year was a regular in his office). But he was definately there at all times to answer any questions I, or anyone else, had to ask. Mr. Chapa on behalf of all the senior class....Thank You!

We started 1995 with a great interim principal, Mr. Rudy Garcia. He had a tough job because not only was he the principal at the high school he also was the principal at Thomas Jefferson Intermediate School. So Mr. Garcia dealt with kids of all ages. Then came the all and ever powerful Mr. Wayne Johnson. He was a force to be reckoned with for several of A.C. Jones students. The outcome of this new principal was wonderful. He put several people in their places and gave the deserving a pat on the back for their good doings. (Not only in sports either) Mr. Johnson, Good Luck in the years to come, you'll need it.

The Annual Entertainment and Dance, BACKFLASH, was a great success. As yearbook editor I am very proud of my staff. If it wasn't for their committment and their eagerness to get up early in the morning to decorate the dance would have been totally boring. Student Council was in charge of the organization of the entertainment. The decorations in the auditorium were an absolute blast. For the seniors it was a bittersweet moment....one that will always be a part of us.

What can be said about Prom '96? Rumors flew about the junior class not having the money to decorate or even produce a prom. They were just rumors. The coliseum looked great and the food was wonderful. Thank you to all your hard work sponsors and juniors!

It's hard to say goodbye, but we all have to move on. My experiences at A.C. Jones High School go with me and have molded me.
