"Let's give a cheer for the Trojans!

Cheer them along their way, onward to victory.

May we win again today.

So give a cheer for the Trojans.

Long may they reign supreme.

Shout, till the echoes ring for the glory of our team!

Yea Orange! Yea White!

Yea Trojans!

VARSITY

Cheerleading is not just girls with short skirts, big smiles, and enthusiastic attitudes but a sport that requires dedication and hard work. Cheerleading is a year round sport that includes daily practices of stunting and reviewing cheers and chants. We the cheerleaders get pumped up for the home game pep rallies, love the beat of the music played by the band, and enjoy the loud expressed spirit of the Trojan fans!!! GO BIG ORANGE!!!

The Trojan football team entered the 2000 season with great expectations. Their nondistrict performance seemed to justify the expectations as the Trojans cruised to a 4-1 start outscoring opponents by an average score of 40-6. Highlights of the nondistrict schedule included defensive shutouts over Southside and Robstown. On the offensive side Spencer Chaisson recorded a South Texas best by rushing for 320 yards in a 42-6 rout of Flour Bluff.

The district schedule was not so kind to the Trojans. Leading Rockport-Fulton 23-14 in the second half, it seemed the team's momentum from nondistrict would continue. However, the Pirates snatched victory from the Trojans with two long touchdown passes and the season suddenly began to slip away. Three more district losses followed and the Trojans were staring at the possibility of a losing record entering the season finale against Port Lavaca. A resounding 40-0 boiling of the Sandcrabs helped the gridiron Trojans salvage a 5-5 record.

Lance Kotara

Mr. Vela says, "Hot guitars, screamin' trumpets, scintillating saxes, raucous rhythm, and turbulent trombones make up this year's great A.C. Jones Jazz Band. Never fearing to tread into new waters, exploring the great American genre called Jazz, the students in Jazz Band learn to speak in a language all their own. Their world comes down to a smooth chord progression and only their thoughts are conveyed through the singing of their instruments. 'Unleash my soul in only a way that I understand and may I touch you in a way that only you understand.' That's Jazz."

Lance Kotara jams out.

Richard Guerrero, Cindy Perez, and Lindsay Ferguson are blowing hard.

CoLoguard

The one thing I'll always remember about colorguard, was when I tossed my flag up in the air, missed the catch, and it hit me on the side of my face. For a whole two months I had a black eye.

strike a pose!!

Sara Perez

Captains trying to act cool.

My favorite colorguard moment was when we were sitting in the stands waiting for our rating. When they said "1" we cried, hugged, and screamed for 15 minutes straight.

Kara Rippstein

One time in band class, we were practicing with our flags and I hit a drum major stand causing it and two other stands to fall over. Talk about embarrassing.

Editor's Note

As editor of the yearbook I learned that you can manipulate people to do exactly what you want them to do, even when you're wrong. Discovering the staff's motivation was a complicated task. Grades simply do not motivate us all. I also learned that the computer is not the God-send people think it is. It can be a very obstinate piece of machinery. Even though I'm the editor, this yearbook does not belong only to me. It belongs to everyone who is a part of yearbook. All the mistakes, all the decisions, all the time spent debating the importance of an idea, and all the hurt feelings because a page was scrapped -- everyone had a part. To the staff of the 2001 yearbook I say -- Thank You. I could not have done this without all of your help. Thank you to Mr. Skidmore for stepping in and helping us in a very critical point of production. Thank you to Mrs. Vaughn and Mrs. Snyder for taking an impossible group and working with us. And thank you Mr. Ingle for being here for us at the beginning. Without you there would not have been a book.

The Yearbook staff hopes you enjoy this book. I hope you take it out years from now and remember the sights and sounds represented by each picture. I hope that your four years at A. C. Jones High School (I truly hope they were only four) were ones that created good memories for you.

Homecoming Night was a memorable event in Trojan History. Our Trojan men emb arrassed the Southside Cardinals with a 51-0 victory. Homecoming Royalty included Fresh

SPIRIT

Luke Richman shows us his best smile while labeling the tacos.

Mrs. Chamberlain and Angie Garcia work hard to fill the orders.

TACO DAY!

Every Wednesday morning from 8:00 to 10:00, the Spirit Brigade keeps the students of A.C. Jones happy by selling breakfast tacos from their classroom. They help their teachers prepare the tacos and use the profits for more taco supplies, field trips, and other necessities of their program.

The students work hard everyday and always earn A's for effort!

BRIGADE

The Spirit Brigade is such a successful program thanks to their wonderful teachers: Yolanda Chamberlain, Rose Torres, David Henley, and Margaret Dunn

We have the Spirit Brigade to thank for the orange and white ribbons that decorate the fence posts around our school. They do a great job of keeping us all up beat for football season!

Jeffery and Jeremy Carr help decorate for the game.

Shaun Campton gives a big thumbs up for the Trojans!

Audra Cole and Allison Rackley take their attention away from the meeting to say "cheese!"

Ginger and Julie Tanner strike a pose.

FCCLA is a organization that teaches students leadership skills, integrity, and the importance of family. This year in FCCLA, the students took part in community service and volunteer work. They also brought Keith Davis, a motivational speaker to our campus in order to teach students the importance of responsibility.

The FCCLA members enjoyed field trips and were able to take part in conventions where they met with other students from around the area who shared their interests.

The group shows off their wild side by designing a monstrous float for the Homecoming parade.

The whole group seems extremely excited to have their picture taken with Keith Davis, a speaker that they brought to open up the eyes of the A.C. Jones students.

The bridge between human experiences of the past and the changes of the future.

Class of

The A.C.
Jones High School class of 2001 stands on a bridge - educated in the late

20th century and facing the world of the 21st century.
Graduates do not yet know the challenges they must overcome, but they do know that they must learn from past human experience and that change is inevitable.

Past human experience and future change are the two ends of the bridge-not only the Class of 2001, but also for libraries, one end of the bridge.

On the other end of the bridge are the inevitable changes to come in the 21st century, changes now of how knowledge is stored, retrieved and shared.

The Internet provides rapid retrieval of information. In this school year, 2000-2001, the Internet is the #1 source of student information.

Remote access to Texas
Library Connection (TLC) and public library databases allows students and teachers to continue online research at home, 24 hours day, 7 days a week.

of the new public library and all BISD school libraries as well as those in surrounding counties.

The Paisano Consortium allows students and teachers to borrow materials from area college and university libraries.

A SMILE FOR MY PARENTS

by Ernesto De Luna

Seventeen years of warmth and love
A smile from me would make their day for the last year my pain became unbearable
All I could see was my parents pain
A smile for my parents would soothe their pain
I couldn't bear the pain in my parents eyes
A smile for my parents for I loved them so
The day came when I needed another surgery
My way out so I could go home
All I would ask my Jesus,
Please don't wait too long,
I could see the pain in my parents heart
A smile for my parents would soothe their pain
I knew in my heart they were dying inside
A date was set for me to go home
I had to wait, for I couldn't hurt my parents
My dad explained what my chances were
I told my dad don't cry, God will watch over you and mom
I knew it was time to go home
A smile for my parents would soothe their pain
I tried to warn my mom and dad
I brought my family together one last time for Thanksgiving
My pain I could no longer bear
Jesus please hold me till my big day
A smile for my parents would soothe their day
The day after, I asked for a Christmas tree and decorations
The most beautiful tree was standing in our dining room
With pain I helped my mom and dad
But a smile for my parents would soothe their day
My last wish was to say good-by to my friends at school
I could no longer stand the pain, as I said, "farewell"
But my smile would give them strength Seventeen glorious years have gone by the day is here and I must now go home
I knew my pain was coming to an end
I told my mom she was my girlfriend and loved her so
She said "sleep with the angels"
I said "no mom I'll be sleeping with the saints"
I told my dad he was my hero and I loved him so
My dad said "you complete me and I love you"
A smile for my parents would soothe their pain
Jesus then came, took my hand, embraced me and took me home
Jesus please take care of my mom and dad
To the doctors, "this was my way out".
I felt no pain and my parents said good-by I love you with a smile, Joshua.
