Edith,
Good luck and be prepared for the future. I hope you enjoy your new home. The room is lovely and I'm sure you'll be happy there.

Ruth

Dear Edith,

Remember the times we had, helping with the farm. We could like it. We should make sure to have a grand time next year."

Jane

I can't think of anything to say except that I wish you all the best. We shall have a grand time next year.

Jane

To Edith, I only wish you all the best in the future.

Love,

Jane

Dear Edith,

you have been a great pleasure in every way, so when that is a job to be done you can be counted on to do your part efficiently and pleasantly. May you have every success and happiness.

Ollie Woodley

Good luck in Your new assignment.

Mary Ball

Dear Edith,

I am looking forward to seeing you in the Spring. I never think that I will have to go a long way in this world.

Mary Ball

Dear Edith,

I want you to know that you are very loved and cherished. They talk about love and tenderness. I want you to know that I have loved and tenderly cared for you.

Ruth Barlow

Dear Edith,

I love you very much. I hope you will be happy and healthy.

Ruth Barlow
To you, Mr. Alley, we dedicate this Trojan of 1953 in appreciation of your sincere interest in us, the Youth of Today. If someday we conquer the forces of ignorance and intolerance that threaten to engulf our free way of life it will be because of the inspiration received from leaders and teachers such as you.
We of the Annual Staff present to you the Trojan of 1953 in hopes that it will bring you pleasure both now and in the years to come, that some day as you turn these pages, so may you turn back the pages of time and be once again in the happy halls of BHS.

Superintendent's Message

This has been a momentous year in the annals of world history. Perhaps to you, as students of the A. C. Jones High School, your year has been no less momentous. We are dwelling in an age of reconstruction—of reversion—of rapid change! In these tumultuous days in which we live, it is a distinct pleasure to take time off to offer greetings to the students of our high school.

My sincere wish for you is that every hour spent in our high school will be a treasured memory; and my hope is that this school may serve as your instrument for securing a better pattern of life.

Yours very truly,

Floyd W. Parsons

Principal’s Message

The future of the world depends to a large degree on the youth of America. This young generation which has just finished the great World War II and is now engaged in a great struggle against communistic forces that would destroy our country, must solve many problems of the present and future if we are to live in peace.

Therefore, since the hope of the world depends upon the thoughts and actions of American youth, it is imperative that we all keep peace in our hearts. If the whole world and all that is in it be thrown into confusion, youth must endure all things with an equable and peaceful mind. Such conduct will encourage every American, in the midst of our present difficulties, to have a clear judgment about our difficulties, and to minister the fitting remedy for them.

Congratulations to the 1953 Trojan Annual Staff and their sponsor for arranging this splendid pictorial history of the activities in A. C. Jones High School.

Best Wishes

J. Butterfield Alley

Tomorrow's future
Starts Today . . .

The type of leadership our country will have in the years ahead is being determined today by the young men and young women of Beeville High School . . . and thousands of other students in the schools of our Nation.

Initiative and enterprise, pride in individual accomplishments, leadership in studies and on the athletic field are attributes that every student will carry into adult years.

Our company has tremendous faith in the future because we have unbounded confidence in the young people who will utilize in later years those lessons of perseverance and principles of good citizenship which are being developed in their various school activities today.

PROM

From the banquet we all went to the gym for the Prom. We stepped into a rocket ship and were transported into SPACE. The gym was a wonderland of rocket ships, shooting stars and flying saucers.

Hanging from the misty blue sky were sparkling stars and planets. The A&I Blue Notes furnished the music and we danced to everything from "Stardust" to "Jalisco." Few of us will ever forget the magic of the 1953 Prom.
QUILL AND SCROLL

The George H. Atkins Chapter of Quill and Scroll, an international honorary society for high school journalists, was organized in 1947 for members of the Trojan annual and newspaper staffs who do outstanding work in some field of journalism.

Second row: Paul Conrad, June Gee, Vivian Garcia, Bette Rae Powell, Gail Irby, and Dauls Jackson.

GEORGE H. ATKINS AWARD

In the Trojan newspaper room hangs a plaque, known as the Geo. H. Atkins Annual Award, which was presented to the local Quill and Scroll chapter by Mr. Atkins, publisher of the Bee-Picayune. Each year the outstanding chapter member is presented with a nameplate which is added to the plaque. This year’s winner, Bernard Henry, received the award because of his work as associate editor of the annual, sports editor of the Trojan paper, sports writer for the Bee-Picayune, and sports correspondent for the San Antonio Express and Evening News. He was also a journalism contestant at the regional meet in Kingsville where he and Jim Roy Stephenson won second place as a team.

Bernard Henry receives award from Mr. Geo. Atkins.
Senior Trip To Mo Ranch

We finally made it!
Just loafing.
How about a swim?
Taking it easy.

Swimming in the Guadalupe.
On the cat walk.
The pool was fun too.

Don't fall off!
Why the big smiles?
Waiting for something to eat.

More fun!
Going for a swim?
Mischief
Hungry, thirsty and tired.
