HARD ROCK'N TROJANS
A.C. JONES HIGH SCHOOL
1992
Our Trojan mascot for the 1991 school year was Senior Kim Lawson. She showed school spirit and she helped uphold our spirit through the worst of defeats. Her unique antics kept us smiling through times of tears.

"Being the mascot was fun, but hectic. I'm really going to miss it because it was so rewarding for me," said Kim.

A.C. Jones High School

902 N. Adams, Beeville, Texas 78102 Vol. 61

We pledge our honor to the orange and white,
We will be loyal through the day and night,
And even when we are losing,
We are winning too,
With our high spirits and heart so true!
You are now entering the Twilight Zone … Senior Tammy Diaz, are you with us?

Inquiring minds want to know what Sophomore Bene Puente is so interested in.

Take me to your leader Earthling, or else take me to McDonald’s … Junior Christi Simmons commands Freshman Ruben DeLa Garza.

Excuse me, sir, but do you know you have a growth coming out of your mouth? Sophomore Adam Moreno is either acting cool or needs a doctor.

Call it ‘Days of our Lives’ or whatever
But we’re really
Hard Rockin’ Trojans
just doin’ our thing
HA! I made a funny! Freshman Tresha Beavides and cheerleading companions crack up. Are they laughing with her or at her?

Reading is my life! Senior Avila Mendez is so engrossed in the story he didn't even notice the flash of the camera.

Casey at the bat . . . Softball expert Heather Thormahlen is attempting a world's record for hitting the ball with her eyes closed. Let's see now, how many is this?

Yes, mom, I love you, too! Junior Ernest Camacho has a loving talk with dear old mom.
Remember, all work and no play makes a . . . . .

Batter, batter, swing batter. Freshman Suzanne Salazar tries for a home run, but to no avail.

Only the lonely. Senior Misty Acklie, like so many others, is caught waiting for her ride home.

We’re down with no P.E. These girls look more like they are ready for anything but sweat!

Pretty woman, walking down the street . . .
U.F.O? No, it's just a misguided basketball flying from the hands of someone who wasn't too keen on having their picture taken.

All that's for you?? Hungry students line up for some grub.

Cover Girl? Freshman Beth Jenkins looks pretty as a picture.

Excuse us, this is a private conversation! Senior Lori Gonzales and Junior Rudy Rodriguez chat about the subject — boys.

Yes, I do look good! Senior Roland Zepeda looks like he should be on the cover of CQ magazine.

Oh, joy! Freshman Kimberly Cano and a volleyball companion look like they are having the time of their lives.

Honestly, we are doing our work, I promise! Freshman Petra Garcia and classmates are not too convincing.

Uh, what does this word mean? Senior Jaime Rivas is caught taking a break from reading.

He's got the looks that kill... Sophomore Mark Garza doesn't look too thrilled.
Pardon us for laughing

I rule this class! Junior James Cox takes over as monarch.

Bond, James Bond. Not actually, it's just Jeff Fish doing a good impersonation.

Now I lay me down to sleep . . .
Junior Sandy Curtis says her beddy-byes.

Oh! I should have had a V-8! Junior Kerri Haas caught in the middle of a vegetable crisis.

We do have our serious moments . . . But we are a happy group.
Are we comfy? Senior Amber Saylor and companion look like they are quite comfortable.

Spreading the school spirit: Freshman cheerleader Morgan Shepherd shares her school spirit with Freshman Moses Longoria.

Me and my girl... Sophomore Michael Camacho cuddles with Junior Erica Gallan.

Whatever it takes to get the job done.

We can do it!

We do have a time to be serious.
Look out! There’s something following you! Junior Leslie Aman is being tailed by Senior Mike Kroen.

Service with a smile . . . Senior Jana Jaure checks out the customers at the concession stand.

Pucker up, buttercup! Senior Chris Rodela shows those illustrious lips by Maybelline.

Smile for the birdie! Freshman Adrianna Franco gets into the spirit showing her pearly whites.

Oh!

Happy Days.

We’ve always heard that these are the happiest day of our lives, and we’ll cherish these moments for the rest of our lives.
HELLO, AT&T? No, Junior Liz Mata is just practicing to be a professional secretary.

Well, hello there! Freshman Trino Salazar flashes a smile - to- die-for at the cute girl he saw pass by.

U.F.O.? No, it's someone who doesn't want their picture taken, o.k.? We get the hint: we won't bother you again, just don't hurt us!

Little bunny foo-foo . . . Sophomore Emily Garcia looks like she's doing the bunny-hop.
Ahh... this is the life! Senior Melinda Longoria kicks back and relaxes, something that is rarely accomplished at school; what talent Meli!

ARGH! Sophomore Cathy Herrera knocks the volleyball to Japan.

Slumped... Junior Cecelia Alvarado even gets algebra teacher Jeff Valentine confused, the answer is $x + y = 2$.

Just another day at work or play
We love the library, we get so much work done here! Junior Ray Gonzales and friends look like they are working up a sweat, poor guys.

Three's company... Coach Mitch Williams and company Lori Horton and Sandy Perez are caught up in the action.

Someone's playing hard to get! Sophomore Adam Moreno usually isn't camera-shy, but maybe he was having a bad hair day.

Desperately seeking something... Let's hope her search brings her back—alive!

No strangers here! We're just good friends sharing a few moments together.
Showing our love for our school . . . This captures the spirit in which our Varsity team played. The Pep-rallies brought everybody together and gave our players the spirit and strength to go out there and fight!!

The life of a scholar . . . Sophomore Daniel Glatrop works on the dreaded research paper that every student loves.

Senior Amy Silva, who was known for being on the phone wherever she was seen, is caught waiting patiently for her chance to use the phone.

Coach Mitch Williams is caught taking a catnap; one too many late night football games.

Just clowning around!
Could this wacky dresser be Ronald McDonald? No, it's just one of our many spirited students who joined in on the fun and dressed up for Halloween.

Trick or treat?! Freshman Lori Montez and Junior Shelby Bradt rummage through a bag of goodies brought for Halloween.

DON'T GET GROUNDED AT 16! This display was organized by the Student Council and Trevino Funeral Home to raise the student's consciousness of the risk of using and abusing alcohol and/or drugs.

What do you think about the Day Care Center in our High school?

"I think it's okay. It keeps teenage parents in school," said Debra Alaniz.
"I feel the day care is a good idea, for those who can use it and not abuse it," said Mely Alvarez.
"I think it's a good idea because some of those kids don't know what to do when they find out they're pregnant, so at least they'll have somewhere to go," said Sonya Casarez.
What do you think your class will be like your senior year?

"It's going to be pretty cool! We already have an awesome class," said Jennifer Jarrett.

"Everyone has to work even harder their senior year and I hope I'm part of that group," said Misty A.

Q — Now that you are through your sophomore year give an underclassman some advice.

A — "Show your best in everything you do," said Charlotte Bentanchude.

"Study hard and don't let anyone keep you from reaching your goals," said Jim McCleery.

"Be unique. Don't change just because you are different. It's O.K. to be different," said Sue Ann Lewis.

Lasting Friendship

Q — Tell about your relationship with your best boyfriend/girlfriend.

A — My girl friend doesn't talk to me when I need her," said Francis Yogi.

Sophomore Lizette Zapata shows Denis ASHley how the problem is done correctly.

"My relationship with my boyfriend is very serious. He is there when I need a shoulder to cry on. If he ever needs someone to talk to I'll always be there . . . .," said Petra Garcia.
Q — What is the relationship between you guys?

A — "I was thinking of having fun, but most of all Trojan spirit and getting everybody happy and together," said Fernando Hernandez.

HELP! Senior Roland Zepeda bumps the ball to his teammate Senior Cathy Knight.

What A Prof! Senior Todd Novak serves a great underhanded serve to the faculty.

Three Musketeers. Seniors James Robinson, Clemente Hinoposa, and Matt Nicholson think that they are too sexy to smile.

High Five! Coach Larry Lollar shows his stuff to the seniors.

Air Jordan Or What? Senior Clemente Hinoposa gets ready to slam the volleyball into the hoop.

It all happened on March 12, 1992, the battle between the Seniors vs. Faculty continued. Some people said the seniors would, some said the faculty would win, and they did.

"All in all it was a pretty exciting game, it kept me on the edge of my seat," replied Sophomore Bumper Gomez. The faculty won two out of three games and the final scores were 15-11, 15-10, 15-13. Coach Carol Dakan said, "This should show the seniors the value of a college education if they ever want to beat us they better get one."

Some seniors were upset with their loss to the faculty, but hey, there is always next time.
A Band of Trojans—hard to beat

Freshman Ryan Garcia, with saxophone in hand, is all set to play—he’s just waiting for the command from Director Bill Cason.

While standing at the position of attention, Freshman Kristi Haddell manages to smile.

Senior Marianne Awaat conducts the last performance on the field for 1991.

The 1992 Band of A. C. Jones High School
Seniors Debbie Other, Cee-Cee Dembo and Lori Butcher declare war on G-P by wearing their Army uniforms.

Even when they are standing around, the Band looks good in their new uniforms.

Seniors Lisa Perez, Anita Guzman, and Anna Gonzales group together to show their winning smiles.

Jessica Alaniz and Giovanna Carrera display their friendship on the podium.

"The freshmen were lucky, because we came just in time for the new uniforms. They were really nice, too," said Freshman Tanya Metz (alto sax).

"I feel that the new uniforms boosted our ego. It feels good to play while you look good, too," said Junior Michelle Dawson (quad player).

"Attitude is everything, Nuff said," Senior Jaime Rivas; percussionist R.F.L.

"It's okay, sometimes" Freshman Jackie Moore; bass clarinet

"Hard work pays off!" Sophomore Jesse Rojas; Percussionist

Mix Trojan Band, Santa’s Arrival—
For Festive Yuletide Season—
There was no mistaking the occasion, for young and old alike crowded around the Bee County Courthouse and waited anxiously for the arrival of the man in the bright, red suit and the long, white beard. When Santa Claus did arrive, a joyous holiday atmosphere began to flow through the crowd. Santa’s arrival was the main attraction, but the Trojan Band provided the right musical tempos by playing popular and traditional Christmas carols. Santa, too, provided the right touch, and when he left his order list—at last glance—was quite lengthy.

If three’s company, what’s four? As long as the music plays, who cares? Band members take time to get in the Christmas spirit at the courthouse Christmas concert.

Is it another ‘teen singer? No, it’s just Senior Jennifer Medina singing her heart out at the Christmas concert at the courthouse.

It’s not ‘Mr. Ed’! It’s Santa’s helper offering a good ‘pull’ at the Christmas concert.

Santa’s own band. Band Director Bill Cason leads the Trojan band in some good old Christmas cheer.

Can you believe this weather ... Spring Break is just a week away, comments Michelle Brady.

HEY MAN! ... JUST FOLLOW ME, says, Marcus Morrow to his classmates. Marcus is a junior and a varsity basketball player.
Great Punch! Senior Jane Jaure enjoys her last cup of punch before she goes home.

Singin' In the Rain, Vickie Contreras, Kristen Pridgen and Amber Baylor wait in the rain to deliver stockings to orphans.

Members of BPA include, from left to right, Mrs. Diane Florke, Julie Luna, Sandy Perez, Jane Jaure, Andrea Salazar, Brenda Flores, Sylvia Cantu. Second row, Anna Gonzales, Terry Garcia, Tracy Gutierrez, Sandra Guerrero, Mauri Saucedo, Erica Maldonado, Viola Hernandez, Vicky Contreras, Jenny Whiten, Geraldine Garza, Brenda Ramon. Third row, Belinda Ramirez, Becky Chacon, Kathy Knight, Steve Haight, Bobbie Smith, Kristen Pridgen, Andrew Perez, Lilli Cushman, Maty Knight, Mrs. Laura Rothlisberger. Fourth row, Eli Varga, Pete Petetel, Richard Sanchez, Gabriel Moron, Eddie Guerra, Frank Dominguez, Megan Pearson, Clemente Hinojosa, Maria Christensen, and Archie Smith.

Handful of Goodies! Senior Richard Sanchez shows his friends the big present he gave to his orphan kid.

Camera Shy. Chris Zambrano and Joe Perez try not to get photographed at the Christmas party.

What A Joke! Brenda Flores laughs as her friend Brenda Ramon tells her a joke she has never heard.

We're Hungry! Gabriel Moron and Frank Dominguez wait for the food to be served.

Trojan Staff: They Write the Readin'

Typing skills. Norma Flores and Wayne Baker show typing skills in writing copy for the newspaper.

Pearly whites. Leti Martinez has a winning smile and she turns it on here, just for the photographer.

Too much work. Veronica Galenca doubles as news writer, page layout editor and advertising layout for the Trojan.

Trojan Staff. Small in numbers but long on talent. That pretty well told the story of this year’s newspaper staff. From left, they include Kelly Mett, Liz Mata, William Sneed, Wayne Baker, Norma Flores, editor, Leti Martinez and Veronica Galenca.
Isn't life grand? At least for Liz Mata it is, it makes you wonder what she is thinking.

Four's a crowd. Norma Flores, Liz Mata, Veronica Galaniza, and Leticia Martinez all try to work on two computers at the same time.

Weekend plans. Billiam Sneed thinks to himself about which girl to take out Saturday.

Being a bum. It comes naturally for Wayne Baker as he waits for the bell to ring.

Caught red handed. Leti Martinez gets caught doing her English homework instead of doing her story.

No pictures please! Kelly Metz is camera shy, as you can tell by the expression on his face.

Advertising. It's just one of the many things Liz Mata has to do in class.
The Girl In the Mirror

And you say life insurance is with who? Debbie Oler watches over Amy Trlica as Kathleen Chambless takes her pulse.

Drill Team, Making up the drill team for this year were, from left, first row, Heather Garcia, Charlotte Bentancud, Leli Martinez, Morris Martinez, Valerie Balderiez. Second row, Lynn Coffey, Cecelia Alvarado, Liz Morgan, Latasha Wilson, Cathy Knight, Jennifer Tucker, Heather Smith. Third row, Amy Salazar, Adrian Eligan, Farah Brown, Mari Salazar.

The right way! Sophomores Heather Garcia, Charlotte Bentancud and Amy Salazar demonstrate the right way to make a move.

"I went to Drill Team thinking that I could hang with it. Boy, was I wrong! Drill Team is not like I thought it would be. It was very hard and tiring. It takes a strong person to stick with Drill Team. The schedule is long and there is a lot of new dance steps to learn," said Cathy Knight, team captain.

"Drill Team was a lot of fun at first. Camp was a blast, but the season took its course. We had both good times and bad times. Being a Trojanette takes a lot of dedication and practice," said Cecelia Alvarado, team member.

Awesome! Trojans tear up the gym floor with their awesome moves.

What's Next? Sophomores Heather Garcia, Charlotte Bertran and Amy Salazar discuss their routine for the next pep rally.

ROMP! ROMP! Sophomore Kenny Hicks watches as the cheerleaders do their famous cheers.

NO! NO! Drill Team members may be thinking of how they can meet with their boyfriends during a football game.

Perfect attendance. Liz Mortan, Mari Salazar, Cathy Knight and Diana Salazar discuss attendance for the past two weeks.
This year's yearbook staff dealt with a lot of stress in the beginning, but we overcame all that and enjoyed a lot of laughter. Despite everything, we got through it all and made it a spectacular class.

At the beginning of the year we had several new members of the staff, including Adam Moreno, Amy Stevenson, Laura Shean and Marcia Cristan. They were confused at first but with the help of Mr. Ramsey and the returning members of the staff they made the adjustment and became part of our family.

This was a great yearbook class. I was chosen to be the editor, even though the members of the staff knew I could only be in class during the fall semester due to my schedule. I really appreciate the opportunity they gave me. I will miss them.

As for Mr. Ramsey, we did not know what to expect of him when he first arrived. We do know now and we respect him in the way he respects us.

This year's staff was a blast with all the gals and our main studboat, Adam. Another person we surely cannot leave out is Frank Pizana, junior. He offered a lot of his talented drawings for this yearbook, and it really helped. Thanks, Frank.

Tammy K. Diaz

Junior Belinda Ramirez offers her pretty smile and innocent look, just to have her picture taken.

Junior Cecelia Alvarado takes time out to listen to the latest gossip.

Junior Jennifer Sanchez reads her deadlines and worries about what she's going to do about all her pages and stories.

Junior Brandy Thomas is thinking about some cute remark she can make to a yearbook staffer.

Sophomore Adam Moreno works to complete his pages and meet his deadlines. That's our studboat!
Junior Dorothy H furyria tries to be serious but just can't get it together.

Junior Sandy Curtis, working at the computer typing the 100th letter to her dude. She may have broken the record or the computer.

Our advisor, Mr. Ramsey, checks a strip of negatives for some good shots. Come on, Mr. "R."

Senior Tammy K. Diaz, editor, always talking about boys as she picks on Adam and Kelly.

Laura Shean shows deep concentration as she does her work. Check out that look on her face.

Junior Laurie White gets in a few licks on other assignments. That's O.K., Laurie, we forgive you this time.

Sophomore Amy Stevenson and Junior Laura Shean, as usual, work and gossip together. Good going, girls.

Sophomore Marci Cristan declines to be serious when we wanted a serious picture. Marci, are you as quiet as we think?

Sophomore Eric Hoverson tests his strength.

Learning by osmosis? Junior Gilbert Longoria watches another student hoping he can get the hang of it.

Shackles and chains . . .

Fizz! Senior Marisol Moreno gets the drinks ready for everyone who attended the FHA Christmas party.

Making It Right! Mrs. Linda McKay looks aside while Senior Lisa Perez warms up a little something.

Hi-ea! Seniors Terry Garcia, Norma Flores, and Clarissa Gonzales stop for a quick pose, while having a great time at the FHA party.

Easy As Can Be. Sophomore Jennifer Wilson finished an assignment during her spare time.

Homemakers: Preparing for the Future

"The Academic Decathlon is one of the most exiting adventures available to high school students. If a person is a good student, then the Academic Decathlon is the place to find awards and recognition," said coach Reagan Jordan.

"Of the 10 events, the Super Quiz is the most exiting. Here, the students compete one on one in a public event cheered on by their peers, parents, and teachers. This generates the same kind of excitement as a basketball game," said Jordan.

The team includes Matt Nicholson, Joy Schenider, (honors) Michale Maldonado, Michelle Dawson, and John Andrew Perez (scholastic), and Laurie White, Suzanne Howard, and Arturo Hallare (varsity).

The team spent the first semester in a class called Humanities. In this class, the team took home copies of work that they needed to study for the quizzes that they take at the meet. The day after they received them, they were given quizzes similar to those they would be taking at the meet.

The Day The Pink Panther Retired

Wow! What a smile! Everett McAulay pulls some money off of the money tree.

Now what? The Balladors sit around wondering what to do next.

The retirement of Everett McAulay marked a sad ending of an era. Mr. Mac was known for his caring and calm personality, rarely raising his voice to anyone. Mr. Mac was a very helpful man who not only worked with choir and band, but also aided the yearbook staff when it came time to take the student's mug shots.

Sandy Gregorczy worked with Mr. McAulay for fourteen years. "He was a wonderful boss. Never raised his voice to anyone, especially the students. He really cared about the students," she said.

Mr. Mac is described as a very quiet man; calm and relaxed to be around. One of his favorite past time activities was playing golf.

We sure hope Mr. McAulay is having a great time on the golf course since his retirement. Although it's a sad ending, he will be missed, there's always a new beginning.

His professional career covered the better part of 30 years. Prior to joining the Beeville Independent School District, Mr. Mac served several years as instructor of music at Bee County College. He later served one year as music teacher in Thomas Jefferson Junior High School before assuming the position of assistant principal in A.C. Jones High School.
Mmmmmmmmmm! Scrumptious! Fran Ramsey and Colleen Powell chow down.

A token of our affection. Jana Jure gives balloons and a present to Mr. Mac.

For he's a jolly good fellow! Mr. McAslay just stands around checking out everything.

Mine, mine, mine! Mr. Mac holds up the cake before digging in.

Thumbs up! Bridget Hurst, Barbara Nance, and Lana Massan- gali give their approval of the breakfast.

Mrs. Jordan is the head of the library but she's never too busy to smile for the camera.
Here we go! Senior Efrian Ybarra sits like a king on a throne.

Taking it step by step... Senior Jenny Whitten smiles nervously as they judge for the new Miss Western Week.

Western's beauty. Junior D'ANNE TAYLOR shows a little grit for the judges.

Students enjoy Beeville's annual Western Week.
Western Week was a festive occasion for many Bee County spectators. The parade included a variety of floats from school organizations, bands from nearby town and of course the cowboys on their horses.

The Miss Western Week crown was won by a senior from Pettus. First runner-up was Senior Cee-Cee Dembo, while Mary Ann Awalt, also a senior, was named second runner-up. Both were seniors at A.C. Jones High School.

During the night of all the excitement not many people were cruising through town. Most of the students were enjoying themselves at the carnival at the Bee County Coliseum. The carnival featured a variety of foods, many booths, dances and a lot of rides to keep everyone busy.

Other highlights included chili cook-offs, pageants, ballet folklorico performances and mariachis.

The good times and fun, though, soon came to an end and that meant back-to-work and back-to-school. The good thing though, Western Week is an annual event and Bee County can look forward to another one.
King and Queen. Seniors Frank Dominguez and Lori Hor-tzon were this year's Prom King and Queen.

Last Dance. Seniors Dean Ford and Trish Malone dance to a slow song before the dance ends.

Preparing For the Dance. Junior Suzanne Howard cuts out paper for the picture booth.

Chit-Chat. Senior Jody Schneider and Junior Suzanne Howard compliment each other on their dresses.

Chalk up another successful year for the Lady Trojans varsity volleyball team, because that's just what they had. Some members of the team felt it should have been better.

"This year could have been better, and I think we all would try harder to make it more successful if we had the season to play again," said Senior Stella Garcia.

The desire to win, though, was prevalent and it was obvious that each member of the team was determined to work hard. Most all team members will agree that the 16 wins didn't come from a lack of effort.

"The team worked well together," said coach Carol Daken. "They worked hard and turned in some outstanding performances. They did their best and the results reveal it."

What's ahead for next year? Returning team members say they will be looking ahead for another great year.

"I am looking forward to playing on the varsity next year," said Junior Valerie Moya, "and making a strong contribution."

Success is name of the game. Members of the Lady Trojans varsity volleyball team include, from left, front row, Mar Salceda, Valerie Moya, Jennifer Medina, Julia Luna, Geovana Carrera, Erica Maldonado, Pauleta Henry, manager. Second
They Ran 'CROSS COUNTRY' To State

Top six in state: With two first places, one second place finish and two third place wins members of the Trojan boys Cross Country team advanced through several individual meets, district and regional competition before advancing to State. At the State Meet the Trojans placed sixth from a field of 12 entries. Members of the team include, from left, Jason Dumas, Arnold Yzaguirre, Kevin Barrington, Gerardo Yzaguirre, John Astry, and Mark Canales. Not pictured are Scott Childress and Jeb Baker.

Cross Country
Sixth Best In State
The Cross Country run to the State Meet for boys included a number of meets along the way. Both boys and girls teams competed in the seven meets prior to district competition, but only the boys team advanced to Regional and State meets.

It all began September 7 when both teams competed in Calallen.

Season Record 0-10

World of hurt . . . Paul Moron feels some sideline jitters while trainer Patricia Tapia assists him.

Hard to handle . . . Jacob Moya gains big yardage as a few teammates watch.

On the run . . . Rolando Escobar scrambles to gain a few yards.

In hot pursuit . . . Marc Eeds chases down an opponent in a home game.

Up and away . . . The young Trojans punt away in a home game.
The Junior Varsity football team finished the season with an upsetting record of 0-9. There are many reasons for this upsetting season, but they are very minor ones. The J-V team played hard every game this year, it was the little things that kept them from being on top on the scoreboard.

"When we got on the field we knew it was time to get to work and we did. We were usually on top in yardage but we made little mistakes that kept the points off the board," said Junior Kelly Metz.

The J-V team was full of pride, including self and team pride. Always practicing and going through fundamentals over and over again gets tiring, but the players knew what had to be done.

"Always practicing did get tiring but we knew showing up for practice was the right thing to do, and it was all under one word the coaches always tried to stress — DISCIPLINE," said Sophomore John Bartlett.

Although this season wasn’t a winning one on the scoreboard, it was always considered a winning one in the athletes’ hearts.

"After every game I always looked at the scoreboard and even though we were down, I knew, inside, we had won," said Sophomore Sean Myrick.

Break Time

Frank Pizana, Todd Novak and Dean Ford, offensive regulars, take a break as the Trojan defense takes the field.

Step by Step

Roland Zepeda breaks for a long game during Trojan varsity action. Zepeda was second leading rusher for Trojans for year.

Toe to Toe

Josh Watham aims for a successful extra point conversion as Remigio (Meco-cho) Flores prepares to hold.

Turn the Corner

LaShae High- tower, one of District 30-4A’s leading rushers, goes for long gain here behind blocking of Roland Zepeda.
Lori Butcher reigns as Trojan Homecoming Queen

Lori Butcher, 1991 Homecoming Queen, and her escort Senior David Miller. Lori was elected Homecoming Queen by secret votes from members of the senior class. A member of the varsity cheerleading corps, Lori was recognized as this year’s Homecoming Queen prior to kickoff of the Trojan-Flour Bluff football game.

Freshmen members of this year’s Homecoming Court included Tiesha Benivadez, Tanya Metz, Angelica Rangel, Kelly Moreno and Erica Baldiviez. Their escorts were Orlando Amaro, Gerardo Yzaguirre, Marc Eeds, Jason Hutchins and Brian Jarret.

Members of the Sophomore Class Homecoming Court were Priscilla Carabajal, Lisa Martinez, Tamara Moore, Michelle Ramos and Jessica Alaniz. Escorts were Curtis Lewis, Scott Childress, Drue Barrileaux, Roger Martinez and Juan Vasquez.
Trojan student body spirit prevailed once again as students, faculty, staff and administration joined together in staging another festive Homecoming celebration. Halls were decorated, cars were painted, and signs were in abundance as the student body went to the polls and named their Homecoming Queen, and class royalty for juniors, sophomores and freshmen.

For A.C. Jones High School students, it was a festive occasion, an occasion that will be long remembered.

Junior Homecoming Court included Leslie Aman, Sandy Rendon (princess) TeNeil Moore (duchess), Leslie Tindol, and Leslie Molina

Junior Escorts were Chad Brehmer, Cori Boemer, Michael Robinson, Jude Cano, and Jason Jennings.
O.K. that’s enough! Freshmen Tanya Mejia, En-rica Ballesteros, and Tessa Baez offer their impressive smiles to different cameras.

Light up Spirit. The school showed spirit by attending the freshman pep rally the night before the homecoming game.

Hi There! Junior Leslie Tindal and Leslie Molina are caught in the act of scooping out the rest of the Homecoming Court.

Is it over yet? Juniors Chad Brehmer and Jason Jennings await their chance to get into their own clothes, that are more casual, and comfortable.
LIGHT UP THE SPIRIT

Fire! Senior Football players wave to the crowd, as the crowd stares at the “B” being lit up.

BANG! Senior Richie Jones awaits his signal to start the banging.

Let's give a cheer. The Cheerleaders do the last cheer of the night.

PEACE! Sophomore Alfred Salinas and his friends look for the camera instead of helping the students light up the candles.
Despite a season in which they lost a few more games than they won, members of the freshmen boys basketball team proved at times that they could win. They weren't happy with the season's results and before their varsity careers are ended, they intend to prove that they can win against the same opponents.

Members of the team include, from left, first row, Servando Loya, Terry Dickerson, Jacob Moya, Tommy Taylor, Renee Rodriguez. Second row, Sean Kenzie, Chris Holmes, Albert Ruiz, John Rodriguez. Third row, Marc Eeds, Ralph Garcia, Thomas Hensley, Michael Miller, Larry Farve, Rudy Flores, coach Daniel Silva.

Double dribble! Not really, it's just Terry Dickerson dribbling down court as teammate Chico Rodriguez follows.
Jump shot ... Larry Farve tries to land a jumper against a tough defense.

Three point land ... Renee Rodriguez shoots a lonesome three pointer.

Air Marc ... Marc Eeds gets off his feet for a jump shot as teammates Chico Rodriguez and Tommy Taylor prepare to rebound.
Members of the junior varsity district champs include, first row, from left: Victor Ortiz, Brandon Butler, Roy Granado, Jerry Casarez, Marcus Perez. Second row: coach Dave Sheuhamcher, Adam Moreno, John Bartlett, Scott Childress, Todd Smith, George Dickerson, and Ruby Carlu, manager.

Free for all... Sophomore Scott Childress attempts a free throw shot as teammate John Bartlett watches.

Watch the form... as Junior Blayne Carlu shoots a jump shot.
JV's Develop Winning Habits, Attitude

Not to be outdone by their Varsity teammates, the Junior Varsity proved that it, too, could post a winning season. The JVs matched the Varsity's record with their district chart of 8-2. Flour Bluff was the only district opponent to defeat the JVs, winning both games by scores of 74-66 and 78-68, respectively.

As a matter of record the Junior Varsity Trojans finished their season with a record of 24-8. Along the way the JVs defeated Aransas Pass, Rockport, Pleasanton, Falls City varsity, Prairie Lea varsity, Port Lavaca, Gregory-Portland, Tuloso-Midway, Robstown and Calallen. The eight losses were to Port Lavaca, Cuero, Skidmore varsity, Taft, Alamo Heights, Gonzales and Flour Bluff.

Winning is contagious and Junior Varsity hopes to carry its winning habits to Varsity level next season.
There was no mistaking the identity of this group of Orange and White-clad Trojans when they took the floor. They were from Beeville and they were the A.C. Jones High School Trojans.

For the first time since the season of 1967-68 this year's Trojans staked claim to the District 30-4A championship, and advanced to the third round of the state playoffs before being eliminated.

Everyone loves a winner and that's just what the Trojans gave their fans this year, and fans showed their support by jamming the confines of Trojan gym each time Beeville took the floor. It wasn't only the overflow crowds at home, because wherever Beeville played they drew a packed house.

Trojans Bounce
Ed Couch-Elsa 89-83

On the eve of this Area Championship game Trojan coach Mike Luce was more than concerned about Ed Couch-Elsa's three-point scoring ability. "We knew we would have a height advantage," said Luce, "but we were really worried about their ability to hit the three's."

Luce was right on target. Ed Couch-Elsa remained in contention for most of the game, especially in the late stages, mainly because of their ability to hit from three-point range. The Trojans, however, were not to be denied their second straight playoff victory as they held tough down the stretch to win, 89-83.

This playoff victory once again was orchestrated by the stellar play of James Robinson, Eric Guerrero, Matt Nicholson, Phil Taylor, Danny Harrell, Bryan Taylor and company. It was a game the Trojans wanted to win, and they did.

Runnin’ Trojans Eliminate
Kennedy from Playoffs, 76-61

"We sat down a year ago and set a goal to be district champions. Through hard work and dedication, we not only achieved that goal—we surpassed it!"

This will be a year I will always remember. It was great working with the kids, and there was fantastic student support and community support. We thank you all.

"We overcame so many obstacles to accomplish what we did. It was fun to be around some overachievers who wanted something and went out and got it." Coach Mike Luce.

Trojans Break 25-year Drought
Enroute to District Championship

James Robinson, All South Texas Most

There was talk when the season was about to begin that whoever won the District 30-4A title might have to pass through Beeville.

That forecast was 100 per cent accurate. For the first time since the 1967-68 season, the Trojans claimed district honors. Along the way James Robinson padded his all-time scoring record, collecting 903 for the year and pushing his career aggregate to 2,177. His efforts this year were good enough for a 26.6 game average, plus the face that he was named for the second consecutive year as South Texas’ Most Valuable Player.

“This team,” said coach Mike Luce, “was made up of a group of over achievers. They wanted to win the district championship and they did it.”

“It was a pleasure to be with them this year,”

Luce continued. “We, as a team, sat down a year ago and set some goals. The main one was to win the district title. We did that, and surpassed it!”

Luce and the team were equally grateful for the student body and community support. “It was fantastic,” he said, “and we thank you.”

Although they were eliminated from the playoffs in the third round, the Trojans closed their year with a 26-8 record.

Sometimes!!! Seasons are Long and Hard

The season certainly wasn't what they wanted, but members of the freshman girls basketball team believe they will prosper from a lean year like they had this season. Members of the team include, from left, D.D. Arrisole, Kelly Moreno, Raquel Flores, Kimberly Cano, Geraldine Ramirez, Tanya Metz. Second row, Misty Spanel, Erica Balsfiz, Barbara De La Garza, Jackie Forster, Lori Montez. Third row, Kaasha Edmonds, Kelly Longoria, Tanya Taylor, Natasha Phillips, Priscilla Manoz, Lolly Long, coach Larry Lollar.

Scrimmage time. Freshmen girls scrimmage against the Junior High School Jefferson Jets.

Free for all. An unidentified freshman steps to the free throw line against the Jets.

Let's dance . . . Jessica Baldillez seems to be dancing but in reality is only passing the ball.

On the run . . . Emily Garcia dribbles past a few defenders.
Good luck, seniors. Senior ball players this year were Tammy Guzman, Tammy Flores, Jessica Baddely, Sandra Perez, Coach Tara Upfergrove, Julie Luna, Joy Taylor, Cathy Castillo, Heather Webb.

Defense! Showing a little defensive strategy are Tammy Guzman, Heather Webb, and Cameron Mansker.

Look, here! Jennifer Rincon shows winning smile after one of their wins.
Tee to green. Jana Jaure and Amy Stevenson think about their next shot.

This is the way I clean my club. Will Corrigan works hard to get the job done.

Racquet Squad

The Net Squad. Some Tennis Team members enjoy themselves before the big tournament.

Tennis Pals. Colten Haas and TeNeil Moore exchange friendly hugs at a tournament.

Tennis is a difficult and strenuous sport that requires hours upon hours to improve and polish. Unlike most sports, it is a year-long athletic program at A.C. Jones High School, and the members of the 1992 team worked their hardest all year. The 1992 team played two tournaments in the fall and six tournaments in the spring, placing third overall in their home tournament. Varsity Tennis Team member TeNeil Moore won second overall in the Corpus Christi Spring Fling, and after placing second overall in the district, advanced to regional competition in San Antonio. More recognition can be given to Colten Haas who won third overall in the freshmen singles division and Brenda Jennings and Kenzie Hicks who won third in J.V. girls doubles. The team proved to be a strong and close group headed by their new coach, Linda Holder. When asked to explain her feelings about the A.C. Jones tennis program and this year's team, she responded with:

"As a new coach I feel the program is in its building stages. We've made a lot of improvements over the 1991-1992 school year, but we still have a lot of work ahead. Like my program, I'm looking for a team full of dedicated, hard-working athletes. To build this kind of a program takes time. I'm proud to be a part of the A.C. Jones Tennis Team, and my job is to develop the program into a successful winning team."
I'm feeling hot, hot, hot! Patrick Hernandez blocks a shot at practice.

Oh! My gosh! I broke a nail. Heather Hutchens works on groundstrokes for an upcoming tournament.

Swinging Sensations. Trish Malone practices her forehand after school.

Vigorous Volley. Dara Carrillo successfully returns a volley at practice.

Lady Trojans Fast and Furious, a Team With an Eye on the Future.

Stay Tuned.

To say the Varsity Girls track team had a successful season would be stating it mildly. The Lady Trojans recorded one of their best seasons in many years, proving that hard work and dedication pay off. During the course of the season, they finished competing in the Alice meet scoring a total of 76 points, and came in second. They finished fourth in the District 30-4A meet, compiling 87 points and came in second for the two-day meet. Junior Varsity team members include 1st row. Charlotte Froster, Adriana Elagon, Sastha Paterson, Tanya Metz, Amy Costreras, Jackie Moore, Jackie Leneka Collins, Suzanne Williams, Stephanie Wayne, Gayle Swiel, Tanya Tyler, Shewanda Williams & Rose Anne Cerrane.

Yzaguirre runs to State Finals

This marked the second straight year for James Robinson to make a trip to the State Finals in track, and he wanted nothing more than to wear the Orange and White to a first place victory stand in the high jump. He had, after all, won at the district level, set a new mark in the Regional finals at 6-10, and had visions of added glory at the State meet.

It was not to be. "James had a bad day," said his coach Steve Evans. "The weather was bad (rain) and James was not jumping at his best. It just wasn’t his day."

That became evident as the event wore on, where Robinson eventually had to settle for a third place medal at a height of 6-7. The winning leap was even seven feet, while second place was won at 6-9.

Yzaguirre, too was making his second appearance at State. This time, Arnaldo gained his second chance after finishing as first alternate in Regionals in the 3200 meter run. In the State Finals Yzaguirre toured the distance in 9:40 and a sixth place finish.

Even though their trip to Austin and the State Finals did not equal their expectations, the Varsity Trojans left their marks on the trail leading to the Finals. They were second in District 30-4A competition with 123 points, placing second to Tuloso-Midway by a mere seven points.

Robinson and teammate Jon Mclee went one-two in the high jump at 6-6 and 6-4, respectively, and Kevin Barrington took fourth at 6-2. Bernard Mayberry and Michael Gonzales placed fifth and sixth in the long jump, while Josh Wathen took a third in the discus throw. Robinson and Phil Taylor added a fifth and sixth in the triple jump. Arnaldo won first in the 3200 meters and John Autry and Mark Canales came in third and fourth. In the 400 relay the Trojans raced home in fifth place, as Scott Childress took a first in the 800 meters where Barrington was fourth and Taylor, fifth. Jeb Baker added points in the 110 hurdles with a third place and Taylor scored a fourth place in the 400 meter run. Baker was second in the 300 hurdles and Arnaldo capped a first in the 1600 meters and Autry and Childress added a third and fourth place, respectively.

The Trojans finished their day at district with a fourth place finish in the 1600 relay.

From district to Regionals in San Antonio Robinson and Yzaguirre earned their return to the State Finals in Austin.
Senior James Robinson shows his winning high jump form that helped him cop first place wins in District 30-4A competition at 6-6, and in Regionals in San Antonio with a jump of 6-10. His first in Regionals was a new meet record, topping the old mark of 6-9 ½.

Robinson and teammate Arnaldo Yzaguirre earned a return trip to the State Finals in Austin, where Robinson placed third at 6-7 and Yzaguirre, placed sixth in the 3200 meter run at 9:40. As a junior at the ’91 State Meet Robinson placed second.

Yzaguirre, in addition to the 3200 meters, excelled in the 1600 meter run. He also was the Trojana’s outstanding Cross Country runner last fall.

Breaking the Tape! Kevin Barrington races to finish fourth in the 800 meter run in District 30-4A competition.

High-Flying Hurdler. Jeb Baker added to the Trojana’s point totals with a third place win in the 110 hurdles at district.
J.V. Baseball

Ending the season with a record of 4-8, coach Kevin Whaley seemed to think that the season was a success in some ways and in other areas it was a little weak. "The season was not a success in that we did not win as many games as we wanted to," said coach Whaley, "But the team was very successful in other areas." The teams biggest areas of improvement were hitting and fundamentals.

The weather also played a big role in the outcome of the season. "The weather caused us to miss several practices and games," said coach Whaley.

One important thing to be remembered is to make a mistake and then forget about it. Coach Whaley said, "The team seemed to let small mistakes get them down and that cost us at times."

Who's

Who in '92—at ACJ

This year's WHO's WHO nominations were handled differently, as compared to previous years. The chosen candidates, who nominated themselves, were selected by high school faculty. Selections were based on academics, athletics, leadership, or any combination of the three.

Twelve WHO's WHO members this year, all of whom were recognized at the annual Honors Program assembly, included front row, from left, Lori Butcher, Jana Jaure, Julie Luna, Cathy Castillo, Jennifer Medina, Lori Horton. Top row, Eric Guerrero, Brett Veselka, Shona Sugarek, Marianne Awaat, Michael Gonzales and Matt Nicholson.

"I was very proud to be recognized by the faculty," said Cathy Castillo, upon learning she was a member of WHO's WHO. She felt that one asset that helped her in being named to WHO's WHO was, "Being involved and helping to organize school functions and participating. I would like to be remembered for my involvement in Student Council . . . ."

"I felt proud, as well as excited, when I was chosen as a member," said Eric Guerrero. "I felt my basketball skills and team leadership helped me in being selected to WHO's WHO. I would like to be remembered for my team leadership on and off the court . . . ."

"When I was recognized as a WHO's WHO award, I was so shocked and excited," said Shona Sugarek. "I believe hard work and determination in all my courses helped me receive this award. I want my classmates to remember me as a caring, understanding friend because that is what I feel is important in life."

"I felt very proud and honored, for WHO's WHO is a great accomplishment," said Lori Butcher. "Being involved in many activities and doing the best I could in those activities helped me get this award.

"I would like to be remembered for my accomplishments that I have had in high school; never giving up academically or in extra-curricular activities. You only live one—be all that you can be and don't ever give up," she said.
The Jitters! Seniors Tracy Constancio, Arias Cox, and Vicky Contreras get themselves in order before rehearsal.

Ladies in Black. Seniors Brenda Ramon, Elvia Gomez, Monica Luna, Yvette Granado, Christina Wood, and Veronica Galvez look their best for graduation.

It is with heartfelt thanks that A.C. Jones High School and the Trojan yearbook staff acknowledge the support from the businesses who have advertisements in this publication.

The task of the Trojan staff would be difficult if we were called upon to publish annually a yearbook without the financial support provided by these off-campus Beeville merchants.

It is our hope that your business endeavors continue to thrive in the years to come.

We salute you and we support you.

The editors.

Cecilia Alvarado is a junior. She took yearbook her freshman year and has returned to us her Junior year. It wasn't hard for her to learn how to write stories or how to lay-out pages because she remembered mostly everything. We're glad to have Ceci back, she's doing a great job and is great help.

Marcia Cristan is a sophomore. Marcia took journalism her freshman year and is now on our yearbook staff. She is one of our quiet staff members. She does laugh with us, but she is always trying to get her work done. We know she'll succeed in life because she works very hard at what she does.

Senior Tammy K. Diaz (Tam-Tam) is the editor of this book. She's been in yearbook for three years and does a great job. Tam is always scammin on some guy and flirting with Adam. Tammy K. keeps us laughing but with all the goofing off she does she gets all her work done. Good luck Tammy K. We love ya and we'll miss ya next year!

Sandy Curtis is a junior and she's been a part of our family for 3 years now. She's in charge of printing and developing pictures, so we're not quite sure what she looks like since she's been in the darkroom all the time. We know Sandy is in here somewhere, we've just got to find her! Just joking Sandman!

Dorothy Hyltonia, a junior, she's been in Yearbook for three years. We affectionately call her "Dork" but we know the truth, she does a good job at her work. She's the silent type, but once you get her started there is no stopping her! See ya next year Dork.

Adam Moreno is a sophomore, he took Journalism but this was his first year in Yearbook. He was a little confused at first and so much stress was put on him but he hung in there and survived. He tried his hardest, he is supposed to the STUDBOAT of the class. He is a strange child, but we think he fits in perfectly with the yearbook family. We hope he'll return next year along with all the others.
Belinda Ramirez is a junior. She has been on the yearbook staff for three years. She is a talkative person, and her laugh cannot be described. This year she is Co-Editor. Belinda is a good staffer. When it comes to our deadlines in the yearbook, she meets it every time.

Jennifer Sanchez is also a junior. She also has been on the yearbook staff for three years, and is also recognized as a Co-Editor. She is a great person. Jennifer can do her pages, even when things get a little hectic. She manages to get her job done, and does good work on it.

Lara Shean is also a junior. This is her first year on the yearbook. It took her a little while to get acquainted with all the staff from last year. She was assigned to do ads, and it only took her three weeks to finish. She sold a lot of ads, and worked very hard at it. She did a great job, and we hope that she will be in the yearbook class next year.

Amy Stevenson is a sophomore. This is also her first year being on the yearbook staff. She and Lara did the ads. Everyday they left class to go sell ads. Amy worked well with Lara. She does a good job on the work she is assigned.

Brandy Thomas, a junior, is in her third year on the yearbook staff. She always seems to brighten up our days. She is a good caption writer, and we owe a lot to Brandy. She types most everyone’s captions, and is a good writer.

Laurie White is a senior. She is in her third year on the staff. She works very hard to get pages done. Laurie also takes pictures, and is also a writer. We hope that her last year with us is her best.
