Seniors and People
The A.C. Jones class of '94 left its mark.

Sports
A.C. Jones athletic teams provided plenty of thrills and good times.

Organizations
There was a little something to do for every A.C. Jones student.

Fun and Stuff
A.C. Jones students know how to have a good time.
Huh? Priscilla Carbayal is wondering what on earth is going on.

Hm... Marissa Hernandez tries to look sweet.

Partner's in Crime: Karen, Jeanie, and Jennifer Wagner off-pitching something very bad.

My name is Doug. Actually, it's Wade Sherman. He just got caught at a bad time.

Dear Miss Childress sports a cool smile.

Almost Done: That's what seniors Jennifer Nishital and John Battist have on their minds.

Uh, uh, uh... does Deida know what he was going to say.

Aren't's Company: Conrad Katz, Adam Moreno and Daniel Giltrap relax before their next class.

The Special Education Department at A.C. Jones did much to contribute to school spirit. The group sold key chains in Trojan school colors and were always willing to give a helping hand when asked. They are indeed special people.

Jose Velasquez was always finding something to keep him busy.

A Night of Royalty

Top, Jessica Alaniz, escorted by Tom Motes was crowned 1993 Homecoming Queen.

Royalty met royalty when 1992 Homecoming Queen Rendon (left) passed her title to Jessica Alaniz.

"Homecoming night was like a dream come true," said Alaniz. "Ever since my freshman year, I always wondered what it would be like to be Homecoming Queen. Now that it came true, it is something that I will always remember."

Turning It Around

Our young men gave tremendous effort this season. We are working to make this one of the best programs in the state. When we look back in a few years, this might be the group they say began the turnaround. Although we still have much work to do, I am proud of what they accomplished.

Head Coach
Mike Royce

The program is so different now than when I first entered. We felt we had a chance to win every game this season. I wish we could have won more, but this was a lot better than it had been since I was here. It will continue to get better. I am going to miss football.

I thought we had an excellent season considering all the adversity we had to go through. These young ladies came together and were able to tie Gregory-Portland for second place in the district. Although we lost the playoff with them and were not able to advance to the postseason, I am still extremely proud of what our young ladies were able to accomplish. They were a great bunch and I will never forget them.

"I feel this could be the start of something very special at A.C. Jones High School. I would have liked to have won more games, but we established a base for the future. I will miss our seniors. They helped us win the first varsity tournament in the history of girls basketball here. They got to experience winning a district game for the first time since they were on varsity. The girls who will be back have us excited for next year."

Easy Two: Tammy Moore lays one in against Alice.

Out of my way: Cameron Mansker sinks two over a taller Flour Bluff defender.

Senior Leader: Senior Tiffany Dove dishes out another assist. Dove was one of the senior leaders for the Lady Trojans.

This rebound is mine: Sophomore Gena Schneider waits for a rebound to come her way.

"I was very proud of the effort and intensity these girls played with this season. We also played great defense and worked really hard to get better everyday. The program took a step up to the next level. Next year we have to take another step."

Lady Trojan JV Head Coach Bobby Ortiz.

"I was very pleased by the positive attitude the girls had throughout the season. They were a good bunch and I expect several of them to one day contribute to the varsity if they continue to work hard."

This rebound is mine. Get out of the way, says Lady Trojan JV standout Krystol Roddy (22).

You take it. Lady Trojan JV guard Roseanna Lahti passes off to an open teammate.

Double Trouble. Freshman point guard Heather Aman (15) directs traffic, while teammate Amanda Trott (21) follows her down court.

"We always worked hard and played together as a team for the whole year. We expect great things in the future. It was a fun year."

Oscar Guerra was named Cross Country Runner of the Year at the A.C. Jones Fall Athletic Banquet.
Varsity Cheerleaders

Right, the varsity cheerleaders helped lead some of the most memorable pep rallies in recent school history.

"I love getting the crowds fired up. It was a year in cheerleading I will remember forever."
Senior Cameron Mansker.

A Cast of Stars

The Trojan Band performs its 'When You Wish Upon A Star' routine at the first home football game.

Armed for Battle: The Trojan Band unloads the bus prior to Region competition in Robstown.

This Way Please: Junior Drum Major Vickie Albright keeps the Trojan Band in sync at a Western Day Parade performance.
Good Times: Drum Major Vickie Albright found plenty to laugh about with the Trojan Band.

That's It: Clarissa Soliz (front) and the Trojan Band conclude another prize performance.

Right, Trojan drummers ham it up prior to their Region performance.

The Trojan Drum Line found time to pose for a picture at Region competition in Robstown.
It was a banner year for A.C. Jones academics with the Academic Decathlon team advancing to state competition and the Current Issues and Events squad winning a fourth consecutive district championship. Left, the cheerleaders give the Academic Decathlon team a send-off before leaving for state.

Left, Tom Motes was a standout in both Academic decathlon and UIL competition. Top, Rocky DeLuna always had plenty of material to keep him busy preparing for the Academic Decathlon and UIL.

UIL Dominance

A fourth consecutive district championship by the A.C. Jones Current Issues and Events team highlighted the UIL year for A.C. Jones.

Team members included David Murtaugh, Heather Nicholson and Tom Motes. Jane Nicholson was the team's coach. Murtaugh won first-place individual honors.

Also advancing for A.C. Jones to Regional were the Computer Science team of Sean Myrick, Jeff Stevenson and Motes. Motes won first-place individual honors in Computer Science.

Elena Past was second in ready writing and headline writing at district. Lisa Rogers also made it to Regional in accounting after finishing second at district.

The Trojans return home after a strong performance.

Ciri Villarreal shows off his trophy.  Chris Kempt was a winner at Gregory-Portland.

David Murtaugh, Heather Nicholson and Kristi Hadden add another trophy to the A.C. Jones case.
Academic Decathlon

Who me? Marisol Casarez and Jimmy Lawson party in San Antonio after the Academic Decathlon team placed second in Region XIV to advance to state.

Feeling Heavy: From left, David Murtaugh, Elena Past, Naira Gutierrez and Diana Garza have extra weight around their necks after winning medals at Region XIV competition.

It was one of the best years in school history for the A.C. Jones Academic Decathlon. The team placed second at Region XIV to advance to state. The Trojans finished eighth out of 21 teams at state. The A.C. Jones Super Quiz team was third. Tom Motes, David Murtaugh, Elena Past, Diana Garza, Naira Gutierrez, Jimmy Lawson, Marisol Casarez, Rocky DeLuna and Jesse Gonzales all placed at state.

Putting on the Annual Entertainment extravaganza takes a lot of work. But few in the packed house in early February would argue that the performance was worth the effort. Student Council sponsor Miss Cantwell began preparing for Annual Entertainment a month in advance. The highlight of the evening was a skit from the movie Sister Act. As seen in the photo left, Hollywood never did it any better. Great job Miss Cantwell and Student Council!

You! Gerome Garza (center) and Manuel Moreno (right) get the crowd involved in their rendition of Sister Act. Carlos Salazar (background left) once again showed there was never a crowd he did not like.

Annual Entertainment brought out the stars such as Heather Nicholson, no relation to Jack, and date Mark Sawyer from Skidmore.

Case Brown had everything a man could want at Annual Entertainment—money and beautiful women. With Case are, from left, Bonnie Frost and Maysy Sysock.

Running the Show

Running a school district can be a complicated operation. The Beeville Independent School District is fortunate to have some of the finest personnel anywhere in charge. The likes of superintendent Larry Moehnke (left), Sherry Myers (below) and Ed McKay (lower left) make sure everything runs smoothly and that a positive learning climate is always present for students. BISD continues to grow and improve every year.

Ed McKay (left) is the Director of Personnel for the Beeville Independent School District. McKay, among his others duties, has a big say in who BISD hires.
Principals

Mr. Bill Doughty (right) completed his fourth year as Head Principal at A.C. Jones High School. Mr. Doughty displayed his usual commitment to excellence.

"I feel my foremost responsibility is to create the best possible learning environment for our students," said Mr. Doughty. "I am fortunate to have good students, a hard-working staff and a supportive community. We have accomplished a great deal, but there is still a great deal left to do."

David Chapman (top) was one of two new assistant principals at A.C. Jones. Chapman came to A.C. Jones from Smithville.

Ricky DeLeon (top) was also new on campus. DeLeon arrived from Kennedy to serve as an assistant principal at A.C. Jones.

A Helping Hand

Buddy Lynam - 23rd year
Lynam received his Bachelor's Degree from Texas A&M in 1967 and his Master's Degree from Southwest Texas in 1971.
"My primary reason for being a counselor this long is career guidance. I want to help the students make the most of themselves after high school, whether that means going to college or finding a job best suited to their talents."

Rudy Zapata - 3rd year
Zapata is a 1976 graduate of Southwest Texas. "One of the greatest feelings I receive from working with students is when I can tell that I have actually helped someone understand and resolve a problem. It's these students who come back years after they've graduated to thank you for helping them get through those tough times. That's when I realize all the hard work was worth the while."

Richard Chapa - 1st year
Chapa received his Bachelor's Degree from Corpus Christi State in 1989 and his Master's Degree from Texas-Brownsville in 1993.
"To have the opportunity to assist students in their lives is very rewarding. I enjoy tremendously working with the students. I would not want to be anywhere else."

Mary Joy - 6th year
Joy received her Bachelor's Degree from Texas A&M in 1964 and her Master's Degree from Corpus Christi State in 1988. She has been with the Beeville Independent School District since 1986.
"I started out in teaching. I thought I could do more to benefit the students as a counselor. I do what I do because I love my kids. I believe that each student here is special."

It was an unforgettable October at A.C. Jones High School. A 5-1 start by the football team highlighted school happenings. The team's reward was being honored by radio station Koul. Koul personality Bubba Sanchez (microphone, top left) and other station members were on hand to present the Trojans their trophy at the Homecoming Pep Rally. Other major happenings included (top right) head cheerleader Tiffany Dove parachuting into Trojan Stadium prior to the Homecoming game with Kingsville, Carrie Greene (left) being named Western Week Queen, and A.C. Jones students and staff celebrating the flashlight pep rally (lower left) with the Burning of the B (right).

Haiti, Somalia and Kay Bailey Hutchison dominated the news. Charlotte became the newest member to join the NFL.

An Unforgettable October
November brought the beginning of basketball season. The Trojans (left) and Lady Trojans (right) took winning records into December.

Ventriloquist Nacho Estrada (right) visited the A.C. Jones campus. Estrada gave Ben Rutter (left) plenty to smile about. Estrada was one of two celebrities to visit the A.C. Jones campus in November. Paty Torres was the other.

Precision: Jeff Talley displays his welding skills.

Study Time: Michelle Rollins braves for semester exams.

Oh No! Top, the moment most A.C. Jones students dreaded since the first day of school, the closing of the campus, was drawing near. Rising Star: Right, Nickelle Clark plays her part in a Christmas melodrama presented by the Theatre Arts department.
People tend to remember the school year by certain events such as homecoming, the prom and graduation. When A.C. Jones students look back at this year, they will recall the campus being closed in January. Most students opposed the move, but all eventually became comfortable spending 40 minutes a day in the plush new student center. Hey, look at the bright side. Most students saved no telling how much money they could now waste on weekend fun!!!

Charlotte Foster (left) made it clear how she stood on the closed-campus issue.

The man and his Harem: Wes Sevier (center) made it a point to keep female company during lunch.

One-on-one: Frank Medina and his girlfriend preferred to dine alone.

Can I have your cookie? Larry Favre (center) finished his food and was ready for someone else's.
February

February brought the Winter Olympics from Lillehammer, Norway. While Americans Dan Jansen and Bonnie Blair brought home speed skating gold medals, and Tommy Moe did likewise in downhill skiing, it was the bizarre tale involving figure skaters Tonya Harding and Nancy Kerrigan which dominated the news. Kerrigan won a silver medal, while it was heartbreak for Harding.

Heather Nicholson won two firsts and two thirds at a UIL meet here.

What Happened in 1993-94

The following are some of the news and sports stories which left a lasting impression during the 1993-94 school year.

NEWS
1. The United Nations effort to relieve hunger in Somalia.
2. The continued attempt for peace in the Middle East.
3. The attempt to repair the Hubble spacecraft.
4. An earthquake in California which registered 6.6 on the Richter Scale. The disaster resulted in the loss of several lives and a staggering amount of property damage.
5. Fires swept California. Among the homes destroyed in the blazes was a mansion owned by countrywestern superstar Dwight Yoakum.
6. The North American Free Trade Agreement (NAFTA) passed by a narrow margin despite the objections of Dallas billionaire H. Ross Perot among others.
7. The great floods in the Midwest. St. Louis was hit particularly hard with several homes and businesses suffering extensive property damage due to the torrential rains.
8. The fighting in Bosnia.
9. Russian Parliament is disbanded.
10. Figure skater Nancy Kerrigan is struck in the knee at the U.S. National Championships by an attacker. The attacker turns out to be someone hired by Shawn Eckardt and Jeff Gillooly, the former bodyguard and husband of Kerrigan's rival Tonya Harding. Harding is eventually allowed to skate in the Olympics. Kerrigan would win a silver medal.
11. Actors River Phoenix and John Candy die.
12. Senator Kay Bailey Hutchinson is indicted.

SPORTS
1. Baseball strikeout king and future Hall-of-Famer Nolan Ryan calls it quits at the age of 46.
2. Toronto uses a ninth-inning home run from Joe Carter off Philadelphia Phillipie reliever Mitch Williams to repeat as World Series champions in six games.
3. Michael Jordan, perhaps the greatest basketball player ever, retires at 31 after leading the Chicago Bulls to a third straight NBA title. Jordan would later attempt a baseball career with the Chicago White Sox.
4. Florida State wins a first-ever national football championship in a disputed vote over Notre Dame.
5. The Dallas Cowboys once again make Texas proud with a Super Bowl repeat. Emmitt Smith rushed for 132 yards en route to earning MVP honors in a 30-13 win over Buffalo. James Washington was the defensive star with an interception and fumble return for a touchdown. The good feeling would not last, however, as head coach Jimmy Johnson would later resign after a series of disputes with owner Jerry Jones. Barry Switzer was named his replacement.
6. Tommy Moe becomes only the second American in history to win the downhill competition at the Winter Olympics in Lillehammer, Norway. Speedskater Dan Jansen overcomes 10 years of heartache to finally capture an Olympic gold medal in the 1000 meters. Speedskater Bonnie Blair wins more gold to become the most decorated U.S. female athlete in Olympic history.

SCHOOL
1. The football team races to a 5-1 start and has its best season since 1989. Among the highlights was getting named KOUL Team of the Week.
2. Campus is closed.
3. The girls varsity basketball team won its first tournament in school history by claiming top honors at the Alice Invitational.
4. The A.C. Jones choir makes a Spring Break Trip to Branson, Mo.
5. The Junior-Senior Prom is a big success, thanks in part to the crowd-pleasing performance of Branded.
6. The Class of '94 says a final goodbye at graduation ceremonies.

We pledge our honor to the Orange and White
We will be loyal through the day and night
And even when we are losing we are winning too
With our high spirit and hearts so true
Fight Song
Let's give a cheer for the Trojans
Cheer them along their way
Onward to victory
May we win again today

So give a cheer for the Trojans
Long may they reign supreme
Shout! Till the echoes ring
For the glory of our team!

Yea Orange! Yea White! Yea Trojans!
Fight! Fight! Fight!

We're proud to support A.C. Jones Compliments of Tindol Distributing

Thank you!

Without our advertisers production of this book would be difficult. Thank you once again for your support and always being there when the school needs you. We urge our readers to patronize these businesses.

This is not supposed to be this fun. Don't bother telling that to Dena Rodriguez (left) and Donna Arrisola.

Hey! Coach Billy Edwards and wife Audra share some good times at an FCA meeting.
So you think putting out a yearbook is easy?
Think again.
There are pictures to be taken, printed and developed. There are deadlines to be beaten. There are advertisements to sell.
This year was far from easy. One of our three cameras broke early in the year. Fittingly, it happened to break during a roll of film which contained no fewer than six club pictures. Thanks to a lot of cooperation from club sponsors, all the pictures were rescheduled and appear in this book.
Plus, we had trouble getting the right mix among our developing chemicals the first two months. Thanks to our maintenance staff, that problem was corrected, too, when we were allowed to leave our air conditioner on during weekends. Chemicals, like eskimos, thrive in cold weather.
There were also the predictable tension derived from attempting to meet deadlines. There were times when none of us actually appeared to like each other, but that was not the case.
A tough year? Yes.
Would I do it again? Of course.
I arrived on the A.C. Jones campus not really knowing what to expect. This was my first year as a teacher after serving a six-year stint as a sportswriter, photographer and layout person for The Nacogdoches Daily Sentinel.
I really didn’t know what awaited me.
I made it, and special thanks has to go out to a certain few people.
Principal Bill Doughty gave me the opportunity to implement my program here at A.C. Jones. I have never seen a person more dedicated to his job than Mr. D. There were times when he saw me as much as his wife, but hey, he really does like me.
A word of gratitude to the A.C. Jones faculty and staff for providing input and encouragement just when I needed it most.
And finally, thanks to my staff.
I only had two seniors on the staff, Amy Stevenson and Clarissa DeRusse. Each will be missed greatly.
Amy was my editor. She is one of the brightest, innovative, most energetic young ladies I have ever been around. There is no doubt she has a great future ahead of her if she applies the same dedication to everything that she has this yearbook. Amy, I wish you could have failed and came back another year! Just kidding.
Clarissa was a calming influence. She was like having a second teacher in the classroom — always willing to give other staffers a hand with their pages, and helping with the planning of activities such as The Annual Dance. And no, Clarissa, I still don’t think Troy Aikman is great looking.
Carlos Valdez will be my next editor. Carlos is well-rounded, opinionated and dedicated — good qualities to have in an editor. Carlos was responsible for a great deal of our sports section this year. Look back, I think you will be impressed. Carlos was smart enough that he could attend to his business and Clarissa’s, too.
No morning would have been complete without the site of Tommy Taylor and Joey Montemayor at 7:55 in the morning. Some faculty members even started calling Joey my son. I begged to differ. My son would never have a haircut like that. Tommy would give you the impression that every movement of his body took great effort, but he always got his pages done. It was a long summer not seeing them.
Justin Moore was the baby of our staff, being the lone sophomore. The rest of the staff really liked him — even though they would never admit it.
Jeff Fall was the only person in the class who actually seemed to enjoy working. Jeff was always volunteering to take pictures, lay out pages and run errands. Jeff would have liked to have had control of my budget. He was always suggesting things I needed for this department. It would have taken H. Ross Perot to accommodate his wishes.
Melissa Long’s busiest activity in class was either (a) writing her boyfriend letters (b) avoiding the verbal abuse of Joey or (c) abusing Joey. We will miss her.
Duvis Arriola, Donna Diaz and Jennifer Dugat also made contributions to make this book a success.
See you next year!
