IMPORTANT PEOPLE
RENAISSANCE TAKES NEW, IMPROVED LOOK

Extra studying and making it to school on time paid off for hundreds of A.C. Jones students in the fall when administrators revived Renaissance with an academic pep rally. Freshmen, sophomores, juniors and seniors who made good grades and had good attendance got to watch teachers sing along to "Leader of the Pack" in a skit honoring the students as academic leaders. Administrators cheered the crowd with a few original spirit yells before serving rootbeer floats in the cafeteria. The pep rally was held in back-to-back days during students' 3rd period Advisory class. Students enjoyed Renaissance rewards each six weeks.

Mr. McAdoo also thanked Mrs. Gwen DeVitt (upper left) for her work with Renaissance.
Rewards for Academic and Attendance Success

Bell-to-bell teaching
Waiting for the bell can take forever, except when you’re really enjoying class. And there’s nothing like a fire drill to really throw you out of sync when you need a few more minutes to finish some forgotten work.

How we made the Playoffs

Beeville, Pleasanton and South San all finished with district records of 4-2 behind Harlandale. The district's tie breaker is NET POINTS in games involving the three tied teams:

Beeville gets second with 14 points. We lost to South San by 4 but beat Pleasanton by 18.

Pleasanton gets third with -4 points. They beat South San by 14 but lost to Beeville by 18.

South San is out with -10 points. They beat Beeville by 4 but lost to Pleasanton by 14.

Strong plays on both offense and defense showed a more seasoned team under the leadership of Head Coach and Athletic Director Chris Sosa.
The passing game emerges

Freshman quarterback Eric Sosa and Junior backup quarterback Colten Morris proved that the Trojans could pass as well as run the ball this year.

Ready for a first down

The Trojans' discipline and preparedness took the team to the playoffs for the first time in several years. Seniors savored the season while underclassmen cut their teeth and gained valuable experience for seasons to come.

Communication within each of the teams played an important part of each win throughout the season.

JUMP!

The victorious Lady Trojans displayed a fine mix of talent, enthusiasm, youth and veteran experience on the court. The girls made history this year by advancing further in the playoffs than any other Lady Trojan team ever had. They lost in the first round of play at the regional tournament to end their historic season.

The playoff series against San Antonio Brackenridge proved an exciting pair of games that sent Beeville further toward the state title. As had happened the year before, Brownsville Lopez's strong team kept the Trojans from advancing further.

The team that plays together, both on and off the field, wins together. At left, the team took a few minutes to save memories of a trip to Enchanted Rock with a picture. They made the trip there while playing in the Llano tourney.

The A.C. Jones Marching Band worked hard and diligently this year to perform a fun upbeat, jazzy, half time show. "We traveled to Edna to compete in the UIL Marching Contest where we made 1 and advanced to Area," said member Karena Ramirez. "There we competed with 13 other marching bands in our district. We were the smallest band to compete but we had the most fans in the audience and the biggest drive to perform well."

Emily Shane was a returning all-state women’s choir member this year. She was the first person to make the all-state choir in 6 years. She made the all-state choir singing Alto II.

Hector Vasquez was one of the first in the history of the school to be inducted into the all-state men’s choir. He made it singing Tenor II.

Albert Garcia was one of the first in the history of this school to be inducted into the all-state men’s choir. He made it singing Bass I.

This year in choir, the students (plus Mr. Mac and Ms. Coffee) have grown into a large family, forming memories and friendships that will last lifetimes.

CHOIR

This year the A.C. Jones choir has done exceedingly well in all areas - from all-staters, to solo and ensemble and contest choir. Even this year's concerts have continued to impress. Kudos, choir members!

The purpose of the Criminal Justice program at the high school is to provide students with background knowledge, hands-on experience and community work experience so they can become responsible adults who understand the wide range of social and economic responsibility in today's global economy. Criminal Justice is also dedicated to preparing young people to manage the dual roles of family member and wage earner. The ultimate goal is to enable students to gain entry-level employment in a high-skill, high-wage job and/or to continue their education after graduation from high school.

Helping make Beeville more beautiful was a new Student Council goal this year. The organization helped clean up Beeville as part of the city's new Main Street Program's clean-up and revitalization efforts. Students joined city residents in cleaning up streets, vacant lots, and the areas around the school.
Senior Val Villegas gives blood (at left) during the Student Council's fall blood drive. Students and staff donated more than 120 pints of the red stuff to help other Coastal Bend citizens in need. Other blood drives were held before the holidays and in the spring.

JHS Student Council shows Trojan spirit with events to benefit Beeville & South Texas

Student Council members could point fingers at one another when it came time to organize plans. But when it came time to work, the whole crew pitched in and worked like Trojans.
Mason Fitch competed in journalism events and was the only academic state qualifier from A.C. Jones High School. He was the first alternate in editorials.

WELDING PROGRAM STILL STRONG AT JHS

The ACJ Welding Department was busy over the Christmas holiday preparing for the annual Nueces County Pipe-fitting and Welding Rodeo held Saturday, January 14, 2006 at the Robetown Show Barn. The three member team included Matt Manuel, Justin Landreth, and Seth Lopez. The judging involved blueprint reading, pipe fitting, welding and X-ray for weld quality. Ten area teams participated and Beeville placed 2nd in the competition. The team brought home the 2nd place trophy, electric welding machine and a cutting torch-regulator set.

When asked about what makes a successful welding program, instructor, ACJ Mike Mjhnar stated that his students were extremely dedicated and willing to put in the hard work needed to be a good welder. Mjhnar continued, "Our program receives a tremendous amount of support from the school, parents, local vendors and caring support from community members."

"For example, we received pipe from Valero Refining with the help of Art Games. Richard Beasley, Terry Breaux of B&T Welding Supply and Keith Overby of Pioneer Natural Resources have all been to the shop helping our students. Wilson Supply of Freee has also helped us with supplies."

"With community support like this, our students will always be beneficiaries. I am grateful for their support," Mjhnar added.

(Right) Organizers went all out for the mock accident. Not only were there an ambulance and a hearse, but a Halo Flight helicopter crew took victims to the hospital where the story continued.

Angelica Rodriguez (far left) and Katie Hickman stare at their strange reflections after being "killed" in the car accident. They were painted to look dead along with about 30 other JHS students.
(Left) The students involved go to a retreat to continue the story by not being home on the night of the incident. Parents and family felt what it was like to have children lost to tragedy, even if only for the night.

On March 8, JHS students went to school like any other day. They didn’t realize that they would be exposed to the life-changing experience of Shattered Dreams. During second period, an intercom recording summoned everyone to the grisly scene on Adams Street in front of the high school. Students saw a random mix of their classmates involved in a mock accident that left one dead in the street and another dead after being delivered to the local hospital. Another student was arrested and taken to jail for his part in the scenario. An eerie silence followed the JHS family back to class more than an hour later. Throughout the day, students were pulled from class by two teams led by Grim Reapers. An emotional mock funeral concluded the event the following day.

(Top) The Grim Reaper leads Emily Shane away from Science Teacher Jo Hoffman’s class to join the “living dead” walking the JHS halls for the rest of the day.

COLOPHON

The 2006 edition of The Trojan was produced in 6th-period Yearbook class with students enrolled in Yearbook 1, Yearbook 2, and Yearbook 3. The book’s theme “Saved by the Bell” was conveyed through graphics, photos and headlines whenever possible. EliteVision pages were submitted as digital creations on data compact discs and via the Internet to Taylor Publishing Company’s El Paso plant before being printed at the company’s Dallas facility. Account representative was Kathi Hopkins, and account executive was Liz Hernandez. The book contained 144 pages in all, 31 of which feature four-color photographs, screens and graphics. Books sold for $50 during the spring semester. Advertising made up 7 pages of the entire book and helped offset the cost of purchasing books for students, staff, and community members. Special thanks go to those advertisers, photographers who contributed pictures for the yearbook and the many unnamed individuals who helped with little pieces (and sometimes big ones) of the yearbook creation puzzle.
