FOREWORD

This book has been prepared as a pleasant reminder of your school days and is presented to you with the hope that your enjoyment of it will increase with the passing of the years. We hope it will remind you that you were the first to attend the new A. C. Jones High School where you will leave many pleasant memories.

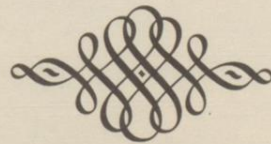

THE ANNUAL STAFF

To you, Mr. Parsons, we dedicate this annual in sincerest appreciation for your diligent work in helping us obtain this outstanding new plant.

We, of the Annual Staff and Student Body, want to express our thanks. Although you are leaving us, we shall always remember you as one of the outstanding personalities in the annals of our High School careers.

SUPERINTENDENT'S

M E S S A G E

This is, perhaps, my last message to The Trojan!

We have just experienced an inspiring year — in fact these four years with you have been most inspiring. It has been with a great deal of satisfaction that we have seen our school system grow — our instructional program improve — our student morale climb ever higher and higher — our love and respect for our fellow man blossom into an atmosphere of brotherhood and understanding.

In this last message, may I exhort you to be ever vigilant in maintaining our free world — may I admonish you to protect with heart and soul those freedoms we enjoy that often have been purchased so expensively — and finally may you always recognize the Brotherhood of Man and the Fatherhood of God. Au revoir! May His richest blessings be upon you is my prayer.

Sincerely,

Stacy W. Parsons

PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

Poor indeed is the man whose mind is not enriched by some phrase or picture of lasting truth and beauty, which serves to restore his soul in the requirements of life. Each of us needs in his heart's treasury the memory of a lovely time to renew fellowship with the great and noble of this earth. This splendid Yearbook of 1956 will furnish us with many such memories.

Congratulations to the Annual Staff and their sponsor for making possible this fine book.

Sincerely,

Burtwood Alley
