The Trojan 2003

The background of the page is a photograph of a school hallway. A person is sitting on the floor in the distance, near a set of double doors. The hallway is brightly lit, and the floor is highly reflective. The title 'The Trojan' is written in a stylized, orange, cursive font in the upper right quadrant of the image.

How Low Can You Go?

Keith shows how low he can go during Limbo on Hawaiian Day.

Decked out from head to toe, Jacob stops and poses for a pic while enjoying his lunch at the same time.

Blast from the Past

Ebomi, Paula and Jennifer let us know what their favorite decade was.

As the BT burns (at right), the football team watches in amazement.

Yeab Orange! Yeab White!

The Trojan family get together to sing the Alma Mater.

Prince Jorge Cisneros and Princess Jessica Batch

Prince Frank Perez and Princess Paula Salinas

Junior court members were (from left) Morgan Hughes, Hillary Heard, Dimitri Bennett, Amanda Posada, Josh Briones, Irma Alaniz, Brandon Mack and Amanda Dominguez.

Many seniors will reflect on special A.C. Jones events, like the annual burning of the BT.

Seniors complete the lineup of homecoming royalty before the Trojans' Oct. 4 victory against Alamo Heights (left).

Reflect on good times at JHS, leaving school, life after graduation

By Juan Solis

School - that one word causes some of use to cringe, shudder, even roll our eyes. We all say we don't like it. We don't like having to be here at 8:00 a.m. or being told to tuck in our shirts. We don't enjoy the fact that we lose out on half the day coming to school.

Or do we?

Can we all really say we don't enjoy coming to school everyday? I mean there are some good points. We get an education, we have good teachers, and besides if we weren't at school our parents would probably force us to get a job. Try waking up early to go to work.

The past school year has had its ups and downs. We all had fun. There was Homecoming, Prom and Annual. We also had a big laugh at times as well. Remember when we watched those good looking cheerleaders at the powder puff game or when Melissa Causey said she really loved this school?

We also had times when we walked with a heavy heart, like when we lost good friend and Trojan family member, Rodrigo Rodriguez.

The fact is at the end of the year, be this your first or last, when its time to say goodbye, to some for good, in the back of your mind you will miss it. I guess it proves that we really don't hate it after all. Deep down inside, we really enjoy it.

The salutatorian has received many awards and honors during her high school career as well. She earned national recognition for a group scientific research paper on chemotherapy, many individual course medals, a Principal's Annual Academic Award, recognition for perfect attendance, outstanding citations in Band, Director for a Day honors at the Houston Art Museum, a Governor's Academic Excellence Award in English, Who's Who Among American High School Students recognition, Division I ratings and trips to state in three years of band Solo and Ensemble contests, inclusion in the UIL Area Bands of 2002 and 2003, numerous awards in UIL Math, Science, Number Sense and Calculator and recognition by Renaissance throughout her high school career.

Elizabeth is the daughter of Kerry and Loretta Pople.

YOU MUST HAVE BEEN

A BEAUTIFUL BABY

Seniors win awards at Annual

Seniors winning the award for best smile were Lionel Alaniz and Monica Porras.

At left, Seniors Frank Perez and Laura Beasley were voted Most Handsome and Most Beautiful, respectively.

More than 600 people attended A.C. Jones High School's Annual Awards and Entertainment show on Saturday, April 12. At the two-hour event held in the campus auditorium, students received honors voted on by members of their classes and the entire JHS student body. In addition, student performers offered a variety of dance acts and musical selections. The A.C. Jones journalism program, specifically yearbook and newspaper students, sponsored the event.

"We were thrilled to have more than 30 students winning awards along with high quality student talent at Annual," journalism sponsor Melissa Wadsworth said. "We have already begun program evaluations to note improvements we can make for next year's show."

Students nominated for class favorites were named by peers in their respective classes. After nomination ballots were counted, the three students gaining the most nominations were listed on ballots. Students in each class then elected their own set of class favorites. Freshman class favorites this year were Valerie Flores and Spencer Rivers. Sophomores voted Millicent Ryne and Adam Gonzales as their top picks. Juniors elected Ashlee Gonzales and Freddy Chamberlain as their favorites. Seniors chose Laura Beasley and Josh Cano for their class award.

All students nominate and vote on the school's all-campus favorites. That means that each freshman, sophomore, junior and senior has the opportunity to both nominate and later vote on the campus award winners. While only seniors are eligible for the award, allowing the entire student body to vote allows everyone a say in who wins the honor. This year's All-Campus Favorites were Paula Salinas and Frank Perez.

Seniors also have the chance to accumulate a number of more specific peer awards prior to leaving the school in May. This year, (See Page 29 for rest of story)

At right, Nelson Nathaniel, Keisha Quintero and Bobby Schaeffer were chosen as the seniors with the best personality.

At left, Keisha Quintero and Bobby Schaeffer show why they were named the school's most humorous.

Naomi Flores and Brian Bonner (above) received accolades as the most athletic seniors.

several new award categories were added to round out the variety of awards offered for the soon-to-be-graduates. As in the case of class favorites, seniors nominated and then voted on top nominees for each senior award category. The honors and their winners were: Best Smile, Monica Porras and Lionel Alaniz; Most Beautiful, Laura Beasley; Most Handsome, Frank Perez; Best Personality, Keisha Quintero and Bobby Schaeffer and Nelson Nathaniel (tie); Best Dressed, Shelli Mach and Adrian Perez; Best Sense of Humor, Keisha Quintero and Bobby Schaeffer; Most Likely to Succeed, Shelli Mach and Brian Webb; Most Athletic, Naomi Flores and Brian Bonner; Most Talented, Shelli Mach and Nelson Nathaniel; Miss Congeniality, Laura Beasley; Mr. Congeniality, Rudy Diaz; Most Outgoing, Cody Rodriguez and Jeremiah Cruz; Most Individual, Shelli Mach and Paul Dembowski; Most Spirited, Rita Lazos and David Gonzales; Wittiest, Laura McClintock and Matt Alexander and Joel Phillips (tie); and Cutest Couple, David Orozco and Crystal Gonzales.

Entertainment for the evening began with a high-energy dance routine by Nelson Nathaniel, Curtis Jones, Brianetta Tolliver, Shauniece Hadden and Ashley Patterson. Following the dance routine, Aries Rebugio played the guitar and sang "Don't Sit Next to Me Just Because I'm Asian," "Grow Old with You" and "Looking Back on Today." Brooke Johnson sang "Save the Best for Last" as Juan Manuel Senties played the piano. Senties then sang "Where Do I Begin" as he tickled the ivories. To conclude the third act, Joe Trevino joined Miss Johnson for "A Whole New World" with Senties providing the piano accompaniment. Adipose, a band comprised of Rebugio, Kevin Wilson and Matt Moreno, offered the fourth performance of the evening with "Sunday Morning," "San Dimas High School Football Rules" and "The Movies." Jennifer Samarron sang "Can Only Imagine" to which Ana-Alicia Arismendez provided an interpretative dance. Jeremiah Cruz and Monica Porras sang the popular tune "Picture" with the accompaniment of Carlos Moreno on guitar and Lionel Alaniz on drums. Brianetta Tolliver offered a bluesy Aaliyah "I Care for You." Performers Wilson, Matt Moreno and James Musquez then hit the stage as The Band You're About to Hear for two original songs titled "You Don't Know" and "Come and Go." The night of awards and entertainment concluded with the band of Carlos Moreno, Colton Park, Moises Manzano and Alaniz playing "Crazy Train" followed by the senior class song, "When I'm Gone."

Always looking to do things their way, Brian Webb and Shelli Mach were named the two seniors who are most likely to succeed by peers.

Nelson Nathaniel and Shelli Mach gathered honors as the graduating class' pick for most talented students.

Codi Rodriguez and Jeremiah Cruz were chosen as the most outgoing seniors at A.C. Jones.

Laura Beasley and Rudy Diaz (at right) were named Miss and Mr. Congeniality.

Laura McClintock and Matthew Alexander were named wittiest seniors along with Joel Phillips (not pictured).

Unique is one word seniors use to describe Paul Dembowski and Shelli Mach. The duo were named most individual.

Adrian Perez and Shelli Mach were named best dressed. Even on T-shirt days, Adrian still pulls off the look his classmates prefer.

Juniors 2003

Third quarter, it's almost over! With only one more year left, I am sure we have all asked each other that one question, "Where have all the years gone?" Over the years only one thing has been going on - growing up.

Throughout our high school years, we have grown. We've grown physically and mentally. High school days aren't always a walk in the park. Freshmen year we already had that traditional reputation of being "The Fishes", always looked down upon. Sophomore year went by a little faster, making new friends, getting over those first year, gitters, and having no worries. But now, Junior year, we have broken through that wall of immaturity. Reality finally hit us. Aware of the fact that mommy and daddy aren't always going to be there, we have reached that stage of our lives of responsibility. Having jobs, keeping our grades up, and doing well in our extracurricular activities are only a few responsibilities we all have to face.

With the many obstacles coming our way, remember not to rush through things. Take your time, and use every minute to the fullest. We only have a little time until we are out. Cherish every last moment you have in high school. As much as you say, "I can't wait to leave," you know you are going to miss your high school days. So live it up. The count down is on!

-by Allison Arciba

Faith of 2004

The challenges of life are complicated but always seem to make us stronger inside. But I have learned that keeping our faith in our friendships will help you get through life.

Although it may seem like we'll never get through our problems within ourselves, we can count on our friends to guide us in the times that we are weak and seeking help.

At times we may all feel lonely and sad inside and feel as if nobody cares. But our faithful classmates and friends reach out to us when no one else is there.

Their words of wisdom and sweet caring souls make us strong, and once again we feel as if we were whole.

I have also learned to keep my faith a little stronger than those harsh times before. The helping hands of our fellow classmates are there, and that is something we can not ignore.

And throughout these years we have lost friends and family of whom we love the most, but I have learned that we can't dwell on the loss. We can move on slowly, never completely letting go.

STOP!
Just think.
We only have one more year in these halls.

So when in doubt of life, just always keep your faith closer, never letting go. Reach out your hand. As strong as we are as one, we can stand by one another, and let our faith take hold.

When I think about the past and all the memories that we have shared, both good and bad, it makes me know that those memories are something we can't forget. They will be with us as long as time will last.

Take your faith and make it stronger 'cause it is almost time for us to leave this place. So make these precious days the best you can, and let's take on the role of life without losing faith.

By Marissa Rebecca Gomez

Underclass Favorites

Junior class favorites for the 2002-03 school year were Ashlee Gonzales and Freddy Chamberlain.

S'more of us!

Wow! Can you believe we're already sophomores? These years have gone by so fast! It seems like only yesterday was the first day of our freshman year. Some of us were really excited about going to high school and meeting new people, while some of us were desperately calling our best friends at the last minute to ask them what to wear. Our freshman year was full of laughter and fun, and now we're older, more mature sophomores. As sophomores, a lot of our class gained a new independence of getting our driver's license, something that all of us look forward to! We've all stuck by one another this year and been there for each other through every smile and tear that life has brought us! Before we know it, we will be seniors looking back at all the fun memories we made together. We have two more years of smiles, laughter, best friends and memories. Let's live out each and every moment that we have together, s'mores!

Apathetic student attire leads to standardized dress for 03-04

Students will say goodbye to some of their favorite fashions during the 2003-04 school year. Next year's dress code will allow these basics:

- Solid color polo and crewneck t-shirts with no logos larger than one square inch.
- Shirts can have long sleeves or short sleeves, but they must have sleeves.
- Solid color Dockers-style pants or jeans that feature straight legs and five pockets or fewer.
- Solid color shorts or skorts that end no more than four inches above the top of the knee.

- Solid color A-line or full skirts with hems or slits that rise no higher than two inches above the knee.
- Pants, jeans, shorts, skorts and skirts must fit at students' natural waists and be worn with a belt if they have belt loops.
- Sweaters, sweatshirts, jackets, wind breakers and coats can not extend below the hips.

Some of the shirts on this page will be allowed during 2003-04, but many popular tees are among the clothes banned. Students were found wearing this collection one day in the 100 wing.

FRESHMEN

Tales of Freshman Year

Four 9th graders offer their impressions of A.C. Jones

"It was the best of times, it was the worst of times." There were friends, there were foes. Hypocritical students and teachers who smell. Rumors and lies, break-ups and make-ups. Judgment everytime you turn a corner. There were the exceptions good-hearted people who'll stick with you until the end. These people were few and far between. Someone once said, "War is hell," but they'd never been a freshman in high school."

-by Clayton Rogers

"I started freshman year frightened that I couldn't handle it. I was right. Sophomores, Juniors, and Seniors denied my existence although I was in the same classes.

My workload tripled from eight grade, and I spent most of my nights studying or doing homework because my teachers acted as though I didn't have six other classes. As a freshman I don't get any respect at all. Sophomores run into me on the way to class. I was surprised that upperclassmen don't make fun of you as much as you think they would, instead they just ignore you. But, it couldn't be that bad. After all, I did survive."

-by Emily Shane

"So what's it like being a freshman? Almost everyone in this book has been one and felt the pressure that comes with being a freshman. You arrive from Junior High expecting great things-- being excited but then you're afraid at the same time. You go in expecting this or that; then life goes and turns it around on you, and the complete opposite happens. I can't say being a freshman was horrible or that it was fabulous. I can say though that I wouldn't do it again. I had loyal, caring friends that stuck with me through goods and bads, and that's what got me through it. It's an experience I may want to forget but I won't be able to."

-by Madeline Anderson

"Freshman year...what can I say besides, it was great! I'm not quite sure if I speak for all of us when I say that, but I'm sure most of my peers agree with me. I mean sure, we definitely had our bad times. Like that day that somebody kept leaving stink bombs in the 200 wing or that time when the cafeteria ran out of pizza in B-Lunch. This year was all in all pretty cool. We all got to dress up different on that whole week before the homecoming game. We also had that extremely touching assembly on 9-11. All the teachers here are pretty cool. I just hope I don't have to repeat their classes. We've all changed a lot through this year, physically and mentally. I have met new friends, and kept the old friends and even lost a few close ones. I have gotten involved with several of the local sensations like Feeling Zero, but in my opinion they would all be super. Freshman year was great."

JOSH

JAVI

Have you ever walked down the hall and notice those people that resemble each other? Or perhaps, do you feel that your seeing double? Well don't worry, you're not going crazy. This year more than ever, our school is crowded with brothers and sisters. Sharing schools may not be a thrill, but knowing there is a family member right down the hall offers some kind of comfort and reassurance that you're not dealing with high school alone.

Football 2002

The season that slipped away

Every year, it is the same at A.C. Jones High School - September, October, and November are three months full of excitement and full of... football! The season is over, but the student body won't forget all those Fridays when the football players were wearing ties and screaming in the hallways.

With two victories against San Antonio Southside and San Antonio McCollum in the middle of October, all hoped to go to the playoffs. But Pleasanton and Floresville put doubt in the Trojans spirit, and San Antonio South San finished Beeville and prevented the team from going to playoffs. The Bobcats beat A.C. Jones and made all the players and fans cry. Marty Garza explained how he felt on the bus after the last game. "I reflect on what happened that night and wish I could do it all over again. I was mad because I thought I could have done better. Everybody was quiet. I think they were thinking the same as me."

Talking with seniors Garza and Frank Perez, both agree that the team had the talent and grew into a family at the end of the season. Perez said, "We had a lot of talent but we didn't know how to use it." Both also agreed that the team's emotional leader was David Shaha. "Even if he didn't play a lot, he didn't quit the practice, and he cared more about the team than himself," Perez said.

One game will remain in Beeville's spirit: the homecoming game against Alamo Heights. It was a great game full of new developments. So, this year Beeville didn't go to the playoffs, but the supporters will be there in the future to encourage the Trojans.

An awesome season for the Lady Trojans

The Lady Trojan volleyball teams had another great season this year. The girls were all very dedicated and worked extremely hard so they could improve their skills and do well in competition against the other teams in the district. The coaches also worked diligently throughout the season to help their teams improve. The three volleyball coaches this year were: Head Coach Kelly Trevino, Junior Varsity Coach Jackie Bowman and new Freshmen Coach Tamica Lewis.

When asked how she felt about the year Coach Trevino replied, "I'm really enjoying the season. The girls work really hard. They step up and play. They make my life much easier."

The girls on the team were also pleased with the coaching effort put forth. Jennifer Gilder was asked what she thought of Coach Trevino and she replied, "Coach Trevino is a strong coach. She has coached us to play as a team and so far we have done well."

The Varsity team finished third in district this year and continued on to playoffs earning the title of regional quarterfinalists.

The girls are down and ready, waiting for the serve again. Way to keep it low, Ashley!

ALL-DISTRICT HONORS

Senior Kristin Kremers lead the team this year, earning first team all-district honors for the 2002 season.

Earning her spot on the all-district second team because of all of her hard work was senior setter Sarah Leal.

After a long year of hard work and strong effort, senior Samantha Kissling was honored as an all-district honorable mention player.

Junior Kacey Bowman also recieved the all-district honorable mention award for her work on the court.

Junior Jennifer Gilder was also among the list of players awarded honorable mention for her hard work during district play.

All three of the Lady Trojan basketball teams did very well this season.

The varsity team placed third in district and went on to play for bi-district. Unfortunately, its season ended then to complete a 23 win-9 loss record. The freshman team finished the season as district champions.

Tony Ferguson was the varsity coach once again, but this year Sherri Webb was the junior varsity coach, and Tamika Lewis was the new freshman coach.

Seven varsity players earned district honors. Senior Kristin Kremers and Junior Jennifer Gilder were both named to the All-District 1st Team, and Kacey Bowman was awarded 2nd Team honors. Seniors Sarah Leal and Naomi Flores, Junior Mallory Whitenon, and Freshman Haley Hennig all received Honorable Mention status.

The girls all worked very hard this year and their coaches were extremely proud of their dedication.

By Kris Willeford

This year the wrestling team had high expectations. By doing well at invitational and pre-district tournaments, the wrestlers showed that they were as tough as they said they were.

Going into the District 31-AAAAA Tournament, the team was hoped to win its third district title in three years and earn its spot at the 2003 Region IV Wrestling Tournament in San Antonio.

The Trojan wrestling team sent five athletes to the 2003 state tournament. That "Fantastic Five" who made the state meet were members, 119-pound Junior Freddy Chamberlain, 125-pound Junior Mark Cruz, 130-pound Senior Manuel Flores, 140-pound Senior Robert Benavidez, and 180-pound Senior Chris Perez. Flores led the team by being the first Beeville wrestler to advance to semi-final competition. He earned All-State honors by placing 6th in his weight class. The team earned 24th place overall out of 93 teams at the meet.

The Trojan Wrestling team has a great tradition at state by sending at least one wrestler there for each of the last seven years. With hard work and Trojan pride, that tradition can continue for years to come.

The Lady Trojans started off a great soccer season for 2003. The team really pulled together and showed a lot of improvement over the season.

"In the beginning of the season, we started out a bit rocky, but we have improved so much already," commented varsity forward Lauren Kennedy.

The girls had a positive attitude and were willing to do whatever it took to get to playoffs. This year they didn't succeed in making it to playoffs, but the remaining soccer players should be more prepared for next year's obstacles.

The Lady Trojans were coached by Coach Chris Dean and Assistant Coach Deanna Blackwell.

Lady Trojan Softball

By: Audrey Herrera and Amanda Dominguez

This year was a year unlike any other. We have been through so much together these past four years, especially us four seniors. As most of us started out playing in the Little League we have grown up to learn from those experiences and have all become great athletes. Many girls have come and gone but through all the winning and losing, tears and cheers, love and pain we have all ended up together.

Although we failed to make play-offs, we have improved from last year. Over the past year we have had hard workouts during athletics and Saturday practices. We have given up our spring breaks, weekends, and summer vacations to devote our time to playing softball.

Softball has provided us with memories that will forever be with us through out our lives and when we recall these memories, they will always bring a smile to our face. We will never forget that the softball girls of 2002-2003, were "one team that had one heart beat and one dream!"

This year the A. C. Jones Naval Junior Reserves Officer Training Corps represented itself proudly and excellently in competitions.

The organization participated in competition at Aransas Pass on Nov. 23 and later at College Station for the Area 10 Meet. At Aransas Pass, Adrian Grunden got second and Jon Garcia got third individually in orienteering skills. Grunden's team also won first in advanced orienteering. Jeremy Tapia placed third in the physical fitness contest.

At Annual Inspection, the NJROTC Color Guard received an outstanding in review score, and the company rated above average. Capt. Joseph Larocca gave the company the coveted Bravo Zulu 2002-2003 ribbon for its work. Six of the cadets earned a rating of Circle Ten, awards given to cadets who have their uniforms perfectly squared away and know their stuff by heart. Circle Ten recipients were company commander James Musquez, cadet/ensign Emily Shane, cadet/ensign Adrian Grunden, cadet/ensign Jacob Caruso, cadet/seaman apprentice Miguel Ramirez, and cadet/petty officer third class David Abilgaard.

At the NJROTC's Military Ball, several students were recognized as Honor Cadets. They were cadet/lieutenant Heather Shaha, cadet Mindy DeLaCruz, cadet Dominga Perez, and cadet/ensign Emily Shane. Also at the Military Ball, Honor Platoon was presented. To win recognition as Honor Platoon, cadets had to earn the best of the best in academics, physical fitness, uniform wear, conduct and drill. Honor Platoon was awarded to 6th period, one of the two Naval Science II classes.

El Club De Espanol

The busy life of the Spanish Club

This year, as always, the Spanish Club at A.C. Jones High School kept busy with events ranging from Christmas caroling at local nursing homes to preparing for the club's annual convention in San Antonio.

Members start off the year by electing officers. Then the Spanish Club gets ready for the many events that follow. Members are responsible for the Diez Y Sies assembly in September. They hold the assembly to educate students and staff about Mexico gaining its independence from Spain. The event features folkloric dancing dances representing different states of Mexico. In December, some members go Christmas caroling at different area nursing homes to entertain the residents there.

Finally, the club's most important event is the annual Pan American Student Forum of Texas. Every year from the start, club members plan for this event. After convention, the club helps the A.C. Jones Special Olympics Team by traveling with them and encouraging them to do well in competition. When the bus gets to the Special Olympics games site, club members cheer the athletes on no matter how they place.

That yearlong spirit of hard work and sharing the Spanish culture and good will with the student body at A.C.

Students distinguish A. C. Jones, themselves with disciplined success

One successful A.C. Jones organization this year was DECA.

DECA students Amber Schauer, Adrian Perez, Christella Castillo, Evie Cherry, Codi Rodriguez and Christina Quintanilla competed at the DECA District Leadership Conference in Kingsville. There, Amber, Adrian, Christella, Codi and Christina won in their categories also competed at the DECA State Leadership Conference in Austin.

In addition to competing at the district and state levels, members of the JHS organization in the Beeville Fall Fest Parade. They also attended a leadership conference in Edinburg.

DECA encourages free enterprise and economic awareness through individual instruction, marketing projects, exposure to successful business leaders and practical experience in business establishments.

At the A.C. Jones Awards Program on May 13, Christina Quintanilla and Amber Schauer won medals for their class and business work through DECA.

Before Mr. Mayo started teaching the criminal justice classes, students only took the class for an easy elective credit. Now more and more students join to broaden their criminal justice knowledge.

While in the club there are many things you can do, including joining one of the teams that goes to competition. The only requirement to be in the club is that you have to be in one of the Criminal Justice classes.

Yearbook

Glimpses of the 2003 Trojan in the making and the people who created it

Betham Hyatt and Tony Collins posed as characters from the original Austin Powers movie for the golf cart made during Homecoming Week by the yearbook staff.

The 2002-03 yearbook staff included many seniors, including (from left) Paula Salinas, Angela Silva, Marli Martinez, Carlos Gonzales and Tony Collins. Most of the yearbook staff attended an advanced design workshop in Corpus Christi in September to learn how to produce a yearbook that students would enjoy for years to come.

Ms. Wadsworth is always willing to help just to get the yearbook done.

Newspaper

Colton and Martin prepare envelopes for film developing during class one day.

LoStern asks Natasha for clarification on a story assignment. The staff would keep track of their work on posterboards posted in the room.

Elizabeth interviews Audrey for a feature story in the Trojan Times. Audrey visited the United States as an exchange student, making Beaville her home for almost a year.

Bethann and Randi type and proofread their stories during the spring.

Colton and Keisha look through yearbooks to find examples of good caption writing.

Sam looks on as Keisha and Carlos work on their stories. Newspaper students use Macintosh computers to produce the Trojan Times.

Theatre

"The Secret Affairs of Mildred Wild"

This year was a great year for A.C. Jones actors and actresses. The marvelous play "The Secret Affairs of Mildred Wild" was the production number chosen to take to the District 29-4A One-Act Play Contest held in San Antonio at South San High. The play was performed phenomenally with one actor, Carlos Gonzales, and two actresses, Mary McKay and Casey Sain, winning honorable mention medals for their hard work.

The play was written by Paul Zindel, the author of the Pigman book series. The magnificent theatrical production was about Mildred Wild and her zany imagination as she suffers through the turmoils of a longlasting marriage to Roy and the threat of their home/candy shoppe being torn down. Mildred and Roy both own and operate the candy shoppe, and Mildred's best friend, Carroll, is a butcher in a shop downtown.

There is a lot more to the story, but it was best told by watching a performance. In addition to working hard to produce the show, the cast and crew also had time to joke around during some of the practices.

Mildred's silhouette creates a striking image as she fantasizes about "Gone With the Wild".

At left, Miss Juarez plays with Miss Pickford, the pretty bird which was cut from the script because the play was too long.

At right, Carlos and Mary switch costumes and pretend to be each other's characters.

It's the rare moment that anyone can catch campus administrators together in a single picture. That's why this photo of (right photo, left to right) Career and Technology Director Robin Sellman, Principle Roger McAdoo and Assistant Principals Martina Villarreal, Brenda Smith and Patrick Seals made this year's book. The five leaders are shown distributing honor cords to seniors at Baccalaureate.

Baccalaureate Exercises

Revs. Greg Traylor, Mark Spence and Don Taylor offered an invocation, the baccalaureate address and the benediction (respectively) at the May 25 event. Seniors, their families and the Beeville community came together for a tradition that began in Beeville years ago.

Chosen by the Graduates

Graduation 2003

Seniors get to the end of the year and their high school education with excitement and enthusiasm after the long haul. The night begins in the JHS gymnasium where class members gather for their last formal assembly. The graduates then proceed to the football stadium for the ceremonies that include speakers, special awards and the presentation of diplomas. School officials work in as many little touches to make the night as special as possible, including lighting world away from A.C. Jones.

Music

From hip-hop to electronica, pop to rock, no one musical genre dominated the airwaves and headphones of America. The year saw new albums from Moby, Red Hot Chili Peppers, Eminem, Leann Rimes and many more. Kelly Clarkson's career as a chanteuse took off, Lance Bass was grounded as a cosmonaut, Ozzy showed why he's an Iron man, and Triumph marked his territory at the VMAs.

Forget East Coast vs. West Coast

It's rapper versus puppet as Triumph the Insult Comic Dog has a run-in with Eminem's posse on MTV's Video Music Awards.

Britney not so caliente

The divine Miss Spears is booed in Mexico City after she bails her concert just four songs in.

Still red hot

Flea and Anthony continue to assault eardrums and find creative uses for socks on the new Chili Peppers album, "By the Way."

Don't tell Elvis...

Kelly Clarkson becomes the first "American Idol" and hits #1 on the Billboard singles chart.

Bye bye bye!

Lance Bass trains to become the first member of a boy band in orbit. But when he fails to pony up the $20 million fee, the Russians say "nyet!" and send him home.

Something to Crow about

Sheryl Crow performs at the One World, One Child Benefit Concert in Beverly Hills.

Zebra, king of the ocean?
Scientists discover that great white sharks are repelled by zebra striping.

Science

The past year might be remembered as the one in which science fiction met science fact. Our good friends in the white lab coats discovered that dogs could count, fish could walk, and sharks really wanted nothing to do with zebras. Who knew? Humans made a few headlines as well, with balloonist Steve Fossett circling the globe at several thousand feet and the space station crew circling it just a bit higher.

Around the world in 14 days

After some 21,000 miles and two weeks aloft, Steve Fossett becomes the first person to circumnavigate the globe in a balloon.

A long way for pizza delivery
The International Space Station receives its fifth three-person crew, who live and work in orbit for four straight months.

Well, that's disturbing

Meteorologists discover that the Antarctic ozone hole has divided into two parts that are spreading away from each other.

The dog did my homework

Researchers at UC-Davis theorize that dogs have basic math skills, including the ability to count. No word on differential calculus.

That's even more disturbing

The snakehead, a.k.a. the "Frankenfish", is discovered in eight U.S. states. The Chinese fish can walk on land and decimate native ecosystems.

Walk like an Egyptian

Scientists employ a camera-toting robot to enter a previously inaccessible secret chamber of Egypt's Great Pyramid.

Trends

Styles past and future, cheap and chic blended to make the year interesting for the trend-conscious. Denim made a comeback for the 287th time in history, while new electronic devices offered functionality that James Bond would envy. Not to mention that the modern look of Starck and Oldham hit traditional department stores, surfers hit suburbia, and lots of teen girls happily got mud on their faces.

It's, like, totally exfoliating!

Seventeen magazine opens its first spa dedicated exclusively to teens just outside of Dallas, Texas.

Feeling blue?

Denim is in, from jean jackets to hip-huggers, hats to handbags.

Fire up those synapses

Gaming goes to the next level with Gamester's massively customizable Xbox Reflex Arcade Stick.

Who cares if we live in Ohio?

Surf/skate fashion is cool, with brands such as Ezekiel, Hurley, and BC Ethic making a big splash on the half-pipe.

You will be integrated

High-tech worlds converge as new devices blend capabilities of the cell phone, MP3 player, camera, and PDA.

It's pronounced "Tar-zhay"

International designers Todd Oldham and Philippe Starck bring their unique looks to products at Target.

Television

Simon says...

Kelly Clarkson, Justin Guarini, and Nikki McKibbin vie for the top spot on "American Idol: The Search for a Superstar."

Bell-bottoms, bell-bottoms everywhere...

The Fox hit "That 70s Show" celebrates its 100th episode with a flurry of polyester and feathered hair.

The blue light continued to mesmerize viewers with lots of big departures, epic celebrations, and naughty puppets. The cast of "Friends" waved so long to their $1-million-per-episode contracts (or did they?), while "SNL" lost its #1 George Dubya impersonator. NBC dominated the Emmy Awards, Fox dominated the market for Comedies Set Three Decades Ago, and "Crank Yankers" made us all afraid to pick up that phone call.

Bad puppet! Bad, bad, puppet!

Never let a puppet use your calling card — "Crank Yankers" debuts on Comedy Central.

Gimme an L! Gimme an A T E R!

Will Farrell jumps the "SNL" ship and takes his cheerleader sweater with him. Let's hope it's not for "Another Night at the Roxbury."

The Emmy Awards

Conan O'Brien hosts as NBC wins big with 24 awards, including nods to "Friends" and "The West Wing."

Friends no more?

Joey, Rachel, and the rest of the "Friends" weigh whether to return for one more season of their insanely successful show.

News

EVOTEE

America spent much of the year remembering those lost in last year's terrorist attacks and studying ways to bolster national security. Congress and President Bush debated responses to the Israeli-Palestinian conflict and allegations that Iraqi leader Saddam Hussein was building weapons of mass destruction. Meanwhile, forest fires raged across Arizona and other states, threatening thousands of homes and millions of acres of parkland.

"The Two Towers"
Elijah Woods is back with furry feet and dangerous cargo in the second installment of "The Lord of the Rings" trilogy.

The word in Hollywood? Sequels. Samuel L. Jackson and a digitized Yoda drew their light sabers for "Star Wars Episode II," while the fellowship continued its dangerous mission in the follow-up to "The Lord of the Rings." Will and Tommy Lee kept the universe safe for another summer as Mike Myers went for another groovalicious turn as Austin Powers. There were also a few original flicks, including a sci-fi thriller from Steven Spielberg and new creepiness from the director of "The Sixth Sense" and "Unbreakable."

Will Smith and Tommy Lee Jones suit up to save the planet...again...in "Men in Black II."

Oh, behave!
Mike Myers and Beyonce Knowles get their retro groove on for the third Austin Powers movie, "Goldmember."

Sports

It was another big year for world and U.S. sports. Fans across the globe stayed up late, got up early, and tuned in to live broadcasts of the World Cup from Japan and Korea. Ronaldo helped Brazil hoist the Copa Mundial after a disappointing loss to France four years earlier. Americans had their fair share of epic victories as well, with Lance rolling through the Champs-Élysées ahead of his European rivals and Serena Williams dominating the world tennis scene.
