Artists

The friends, the enemies, the kid no one talked to at lunch. This is anyone and everyone.

Canvas

The people and classes that got us started on what we made of ourselves.

Inspiration

Friday nights and Tuesday mornings: from football and soccer, to tennis and wrestling, and yes, even golf; these athletes get their moment.

Opening Ceremonies

The nights that made us laugh, cry, and wonder why the Salutatorian had a lamp shade on his head.

Collaboration

Not everyone who strives high is a bookworm, and not everyone who isn't known academically is lazy. These are those kids.

Admiration

The people, parents, and all others who care enough about this high school to make each year possible.

Gabby Chapa, Jamie Blackwell, Calli Barber, Mallorie Garza, Erin Tabb, Audrey Jones, Sonia Calica, and Rebecca Weaver (pictured on left) have made their senior year a year to remember, not only for the team but for the entire Beeville community.

As district games came and went the girls racked up an amazing record of 7-2-1. This gave the Ladies the 1st place trophy in the district line up. They wowed the community by taking care of the competition and pushing themselves everyday on and off the field.

We have had an amazing opportunity to see our soccer girls make history. We wish them the best in the future years. Work hard and keep up the good work. We are very grateful to have witnessed this great success.

Shirt Fundraiser

During the school year, the A.C. Jones Art Club began a new fundraiser: screen-printed t-shirts. Students were allowed to bring in their own shirts for a $6 printing fee, or buy a shirt for $10. The screens printed were of the Art Club logo and a seasonal screen for Halloween. The process is shown to the right, with white ink being pressed through a silk-screen on a shirt. The newly-printed shirt is sent to someone to dry with a hairdryer, and then taken to an iron to set in the design. The shirts are then folded and set aside for purchasing students. Here, they are making the Art Club member shirts for the students in the organization.

A Tale of Two Presidents

This year, the Art Club had two presidents; Megan Pfaler (12, above) for the first semester and Angelica Gonzales for the second semester. Megan had graduated early at the end of the first semester and moved to California for personal reasons; she walked with her peers in May.

Angelica Gonzales took over as Art Club president in Megan's absence. She's been a member of the organization for two years, and graduated in May 2009. She plans to attend University of Texas at San Antonio for International business.

The day of our lives, the best night ever. From prom to contest, it's where and when it all mattered.

AT ATTENTION Military Awards

August 22nd, 2008: the start of the 08-09 year. December 12th, 2008: the last football game of the season. May 9th, 2009: prom. May 28th, 2009: graduation. Some of the most important dates of the entire school year. Maybe not for some, but for the biggest majority. You'd probably remember being excited to go to a big playoff game for the Trojans, waiting for Christmas break to start. Maybe you were the girl who anticipated the prom dress of her dreams, or the friend who went to Annual and cheered your buddy as they sang, danced, or joked their way through the whole show. Yeah, and we were there with you, having the time of our lives. These are those nights, compiled into a written memory for us all to share.

SING ALONG Jessie Nathaniel and Zach Rojas

BEST FOOT FORWARD The band plays for the rally.

IN LINE The Dazzlers help with the spirit.

ROCK ON Everyone cheers their class on.

TIME WARP Everyone from every decade.

GEEK OUT Senior Steven Ambriz, LeAnthony Salazar and Eric Soza.

SPIRIT

The age-old high school mantra: "We've got spirit; yes, we do! We've got spirit; how about you!"

Everyone's heard that chant by now; who has more spirit? Well, during Homecoming Week, it wasn't whether the home side or visiting fans did. It was more of a Civil War between each class who displayed their show of fun and spirit through the traditional Homecoming Dress-Out Week. Each day was specified as to what theme, such as Era Day, Cartoon Day, and so on and so forth.

The days were as follows: Monday (Nerd Day,) Tuesday (Cartoon Day,) Wednesday (Twin Day,) Thursday (Era Day,) and Friday (Spirit Day.) On Friday, the homecoming parade kicked off the festivities for the big Homecoming Game.

SEEING DOUBLE? We did on Twin Day.

WONDER TWINS Elise Hernandez and Samantha Perez

Crowned Royalty

Seniors Eric Soza and Audrey Jones are dubbed A.C. Jones' Homecoming King and Queen for 2008.

School Royalty

October 16th, 2008: fans are excited, kids are buying treats, but not everyone is in casual clothing. Everything is formal for the upcoming homecoming festivities as the band plays a calming tune to set the mood of the moment. Young men don handsome tuxedos, ladies in elegant dresses. The school is presenting their homecoming royalty, the nominees for each class excited to wear the title of 'Class Prince and Princess.'

Military Ball

A night of excellence

for those who will serve and protect us.

Everyone knows of the usual awards ceremonies, whether they're student choice or Night of Excellence. Here, this is a ceremony dedicated to the Naval Junior Reserve Officer Training Corps (N.J.R.O.T.C. for short,) where hard work, ability, and character are recognized by all. They are awarded badges, certificates, and even ranks and they show their work with pride. The students pitched together and purchased a new office chair as a token of thanks for their advisors, Colonel Lovely and Mr. Hidalgo.

Mr. Hidalgo served as the main MC for the ceremony, announcing each award, its significance to the organization, and the recipients' names. After the ceremonies, Colonel Lovely allowed the ladies to change into more appropriate attire for the evening's dance and banquet. Arrays of dresses and formal attire decorated the dance floor, which was brought to life with lights and a fog machine.

AT ATTENTION

The N.J.R.O.T.C. members line up as they receive awards, ranks, badges, and glowing rights before festivities.

HEAD HONCHO

Colonel Lovely stays in charge and oversees all activities involved in the N.J.R.O.T.C. He is assisted by Mr. Hidalgo.

RECOGNIZED

Members Pedro Briones (11), Elizabeth Dominguez (11), and Priscilla Garcia (11) line up as their names are called to receive awards and ranks.

JUST REWARDS

The following platoon earned Honor Platoon for 2008-2009 for demonstrating outstanding character and ability.

LADIES' NIGHT

Anne Jordan Gartner

"Many remarks have been made about our friend, whom we lost last fall. Anne Jordan Gartner was bright, witty, committed, and giving"
Paula Duffy,
Joe Barnhart Scholarship Program

"I was fortunate to work with Ms. Gartner on several strategies especially on the improvement of TAKS scores! She seemed to have positive feedback throughout our conversations! Her knowledge was unending with Science!"
j.d.r.

"She knew how to explain physics to students so that they could understand it and succeed in class. She tried to teach in a very visual manner, not just with textbooks. She believed in drawing things on paper to help students understand".

Senior Victor Hinojosa

"Her knowledge of science lives on with her students at A.C. Jones and those now at their respective universities. I am sure that I could speak for all in saying, Thank you, Ms. Gartner."
Former A.C. Jones teacher,
Stephanie Valderrama

"Great friend and colleague. Many times she pulled me through the fire and out of it, especially when my technology would crash. Miss you Anne."

R Ball

"Ann had a generous and caring heart! She was a great friend to me during the worst of my battle with cancer. She brought her collection of hats for me to wear when I lost my hair from Chemo and she either emailed me or came to see me every day to check and see how I was doing. She did all of this even when she was not feeling well. Ann never forgot to let me know that she cared and was praying for my recovery. I will always miss her!"

To believe is to know that every day is a new beginning.
Is to trust that miracles happen,
and dreams really do come true.

To believe is to find the strength and courage that lies within us
When it's time to pick up the pieces and begin again.

To believe is to know we are not alone, That life is a gift and this is our time to cherish it.

To believe is to know that wonderful surprises are just waiting to happen,
And all our hopes and dreams are within reach.

Believe in yourself and all your dreams will come true...

We Love You!

Mom, Dad, Gabriel, Jonathan,
Ynesia, Ethan, Grandma, Grandpa
and all your aunts, uncles & cousins.

It has been a complete joy watching you as you grow. Watching you take your first steps. Watching you kick that first soccer ball. Watching you go to your first day of school. Watching you walk across that stage on graduation day. Watching as you grow into the beautiful young lady you have become. Now we wait anxiously to watch you as you continue to grow, as you walk into your future, and see all the wonderful and amazing things life has in store for you.

We love you Jammers,
Your Entire Family
